

Two Local Men Obtain License

Two staff members at Willford Funeral Home have recently become licensed funeral directors. Terry Wheeler and E. N. (Pete) Manning have been notified that they successfully passed the examination given in April by the State Board of Embalmers and Funeral Directors.

They were notified by Clyde O. Robinson, executive secretary of the board.

There are now five licensed funeral directors on the funeral home staff. Wheeler, an employee of the funeral home for the past year, is a native of Edenton. He is married to the former Patricia Alexander and they have one child. They attend First Christian Church.

Manning, production superintendent at The Chowan Herald, has been working part-time at the funeral home for about one and one-half years. He is married to the former Betty Letcher and they have two children.

The Mannings are active members of Edenton Baptist Church.
