CRISPY CHICKEN—Deliciously spiced, crisply crusted, this baked chicken is an excellent choice for the picnic basket or the patio party.

Today television brings presidential candidates into our homes, but a long time ago the political warriors had to meet the voter face to face, and without theatrical make-up.

Mammoth barbecues were one of the favorite events to bring out large crowds of voters. They still are.

The old-fashioned variety were come-one-come-all affairs and preparations started weeks before the "eating meet." Party workers toiled devotedly and flocks of cattle and sheep were polished off by hundreds, sometimes thousands, of hungry men, women and children who made a "finger-lickin'" day of it. In such events the spicy mop sauces were used by the bucketful.

We still adore barbecues and in this part of the country we still have big ones, but today the chore of making the all-important sauce has been simplified by the availability of a convenient blend of spices . . . barbecue spice.

This blend was developed by spice manufacturers as a basic seasoning for marinades and mop sauces. Barbecue spice adds teasing redolence to steaks, chops, meats and fish if sprinkled lightly over the surface of the food during the last few minutes of broiling.

While formulas may vary according to manufacturer and brand, the essential spices in barbecue spice are chili peppers, cumin, garlic, cloves, paprika, salt and sugar. It's easy to step up the pungency by adding a bit more chili powder or cayenne or a speck more garlic powder, according to personal taste.

The cookout season is just beginning, so here are some timely recipes from the American Spice Trade Association, all seasoned with barbecue spice.

Whether hot from the grill or cold in a picnic basket, barbecue spice gives delicious aroma to breaded chicken. This method of preparing the chicken is excellent for those on a low-fat or even low calorie diet.

Crispy Baked Chicken
2 tablespoons lemon juice.

1/2 teaspoon salt.
3 lb. broiler-type chicken, cut into eight pieces.
1/3 cup flour.
2 eggs, beaten.
3/4 cup fine, dry bread crumbs.

1 tablespoon barbecue spice.
Sprinkle lemon juice and salt over chicken. Let stand in refrigerator at least one hour. Dredge chicken in flour; shake off excess. Dip chicken in egg, then roll in bread crumbs mixed with barbecue spice. Place on greased baking pan. Bake in a preheated 350-degree oven for one hour or until done. Serve hot or cold. Serves four.

This is about the easiest meat loaf going. Of course, most of the seasoning is included in the barbecue spice.

Quick Mini Meat Loaves
1 1/2 lbs. ground chuck.
1 can (8 oz.) tomato sauce.
1 egg, slightly beaten.
1/3 cup soft bread crumbs.
1 tablespoon instant minced onion.
2 teaspoons barbecue spice.

1/2 teaspoon salt.
Combine all ingredients. Mix well, but do not over-mix. Shape into six individual loaves. Place on a baking pan. Bake in a 350 degree oven 40 minutes or until done. Serve hot or cold in sandwiches. Serves six.

Dr. Boyd, 79, Taken In Death

Dr. Mark F. Boyd, 79, of Tallahassee, Fla., died last week following a series of heart attacks. Dr. Boyd, an international known scientist in the field of tropical medicine, lived in Edenton at one time.

He had lived in Tallahassee since 1931 and retired in 1947 but maintained a keen interest in science and history, particularly the Florida period of Spanish occupation. At the time of his death he was collaborating with a library professor of the University of Madrid on a new book on the subject.

A native of St. Paul, Minn., Dr. Boyd traveled extensively and gained a global reputation and in 1953 received the Prix de Brumpt from the University of Paris faculty of medicine, in recognition of his work in tropical diseases.

Surviving are his wife, Nancy Ruth Harris Boyd; three daughters, Mrs. Edgar L. Krause, Mrs. John A. Henderson and Mrs. George R. Winchester; five grandsons, two granddaughters and seven great grandchildren, all of Tallahassee.

Assault Charge Nets Sentence

James Edward Privott, 31-year-old Negro, 400 North Granville Street, Tuesday was given a suspended sentence on a charge of assaulting a female.

Privott, tried in Chowan County District Court, was sentenced to eight months, suspended and placed on probation for two years upon payment of $25 fine and costs.

In a case where he was charged with public drunkenness, Privott had prayer for judgment continued upon payment of costs.

Judge W. S. Privott heard the case and others in district court. Prosecuting the docket, including the following cases, was Solicitor Wilton Walker:

Henry Wilson Brabble, Sr., failure to yield right of way, not guilty.

Bobby Privott, William Earl Privott, George Privott, Jr., and Marvin Parks, trespass and assault, not prosessed with leave.

Percy Ray Privott, traffic violation, 10 days, suspended upon payment of $10 fine and costs.

James Robert Williams, speeding, 10 days, suspended upon payment of $20 fine and costs.

Bobby Gerald Stanley, improper equipment, 10 days, suspended upon payment of costs. A worthless check charge was not prosessed.

How do you tell a drunk?

The man was acting strangely. You know what people thought. But the neighborhood pharmacist had a hunch, took a close look, gave the man sugar. Then he called a physician who found the man was in insulin shock. Too much insulin, not liquor. Without prompt treatment, he might have died. This story illustrates the potency of modern drugs. Before using powerful drugs you should see a physician and then follow directions to the letter when taking them. There's a happier moral. Without modern drugs, the diabetic in this story wouldn't have had a life to save.
