

Edenton Artist Holding Show

MOUNT OLIVE — Miss Elizabeth (Betty) Ross, a native of Edenton and currently a member of the East Carolina University art department faculty, is holding a one-woman art show in the Henderson Building of Mount Olive College in Mount Olive.

She has depicted the landscape of our region in her work. The public is invited to view the exhibit.

The artist received both her B.S. and M.A. degrees from East Carolina University in Greenville and returned in 1966 to teach drawing and painting. When discussing her work, she considers drawing to be the medium through which she can best express her feelings about her subject matter.

"The process of drawing," she says, "allows the ultimate in freedom and spontaneity, resulting in a fresh and personal statement. Painting, on the other hand, permits a more complete statement because of the added beauty of color."

Miss Ross has had one-woman shows at the Greenville Art Center, the Union County Library Exhibition Gallery in Monroe, and very recently in the School of Art Hallway Gallery at East Carolina University.

Catalog Postal Rates Increased

Postmaster James M. Bond reminded postal customers today that higher parcel post and catalog rates went into effect Saturday.

The rate increase will average 10.5 per cent and in most cases will mean an additional 10 cents postage per parcel.

The higher rates were approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission in July.

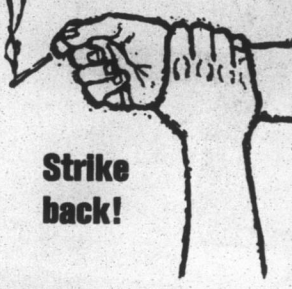

Under the new rates the minimum charge for local parcel delivery will go from 40 to 50 cents. The minimum charge for parcels destined outside the local delivery area will be raised from 50 cents to 60 cents.

Almost all parcels that are charged up to $1.10 under present rates will go up 10 cents. This accounts for more than 80 per cent of all parcel post, Postmaster Bond pointed out.
