April Wedding Set By Couple

Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Mildred Gordon Price of Norfolk, Va., daughter of Mrs. Myda Weaver Price of Edenton, and the late Lt. Gordon G. Price of Norfolk, to George Andrew Kaufmann, Jr., of Chesapeake, Va., son of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Kaufmann, Sr., of Abington, Pa.

Miss Price is a graduate of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, and is employed as a medical technologist at DePaul Hospital in Norfolk.

Mr. Kaufmann is a graduate of Gettysburg College in Gettysburg, Pa., and is a sales representative for Upjohn Pharmaceutical Company.

The wedding will take place April 12 at St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Edenton.

The bride-elect is also the granddaughter of Mrs. Thomas Judson Pete of Edenton.

Ready For The Worst

Dorothy—"How long is it to my birthday?"

Mother—"Not very long, dear."

Dorothy—"Well, is it time for me to begin to be a good girl?"

Promised!

"Daughter, there are two words I wish you'd promise me never to use. One of them is 'swell' and the other's 'lousy'."

"Okay, mother, I'll promise. What are the words?"

25 Witnesses To Attend Event

About 25 delegates from the Central Unit Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses here in Edenton will attend the three-day circuit convention in Tarboro the weekend of January 24-26, according to a statement made here today by Raymond Weathers, local presiding minister.

The meeting will be held at the W. A. Patillo High School in Tarboro, where an estimated 800 delegates from 16 congregations are expected.

Sessions will begin Friday, January 24 at 6:45 P. M. and continue through Sunday, January 26 until 6 P. M.

The convention's theme is "Make Wise Use of the Remaining Time."

The featured event of this Tarboro seminar, sponsored by the Watchtower Society, will be a public talk Sunday, January 26, at 3 P. M. by J. A. Thompson, Jr., district supervisor. The subject of the address will be "Law and Order—When and How?"

The public is invited to attend all sessions, Weathers said.

Millsaps Among Research Team

A team of seven graduate students and a faculty member at N. C. State University have gone to Nassau in the Bahamas to join the oceanographic research ship, the Eastward.

Among the group is Harold Millsaps of Edenton.

The Eastward is the National Science Foundation research vessel operated by Duke University.

Dr. William Hassler, NCSU zoologist, said the students will conduct research on special problems while aboard the vessel and gather specimens of deep-sea fish which will be brought back on to N. C. State for study.

The group will leave the Eastward at San Juan, Puerto Rico and go to the St. Johns Mountain National Park in the Virgin Islands for further studies.

They will return to N. C. State in late January. The seven graduate students are all working on Ph.D. degrees and are conducting a wide variety of research.

Institute Set For Newsmen

Newsmen from across the state will assemble in Raleigh on Friday, February 7, for the 17th annual Farm Press, Radio and Television Institute.

Gov. Bob Scott will open the institute with a press conference at 10 A. M. He will be followed by Horace Kornegay, former Sixth District congressman and now vice president of the Tobacco Institute, Washington, D. C.

The luncheon program will feature remarks by Agriculture Commissioner James A. Graham and Dr. H. Brooks James, dean of agriculture and life sciences at North Carolina State University.

The afternoon program will feature a presentation by Dr. C. E. Bishop, vice president of the University of North Carolina.

The institute will close with a banquet on Friday night. All sessions will be held at the Velvet Cloak Motor Inn.

ENGAGED—Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Tarkington of Edenton announce the engagement of their daughter, Anita Ellene, of Greensboro, to John W. Newell, son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Newell of Damascus, Md. A March wedding is planned.

Yorkshire Sale Set For Tuesday

The N. C. State Yorkshire winter sale will be held on Tuesday at the livestock barn in Plymouth. The show will start at 10 A. M. and the sale at 1 P. M.

Bred gilts, open gilts and boars will be offered for sale by Yorkshire breeders from throughout North Carolina.

According to Jack Parker, area livestock specialist, this will be an opportunity for pork producers from throughout the area to buy top quality breeding animals to go into their herds.

Ellis Tile Keeps Lead In Race

Ellis Tile remains at the top of the Men's Independent Basketball League at the mid-point of the season, having won eight games without a loss. Bill Perry's is in second place with a 6-2 record.

Chris-Craft holds down third place with 4-4; Jaycees, 3-5; Cotton Mills, 2-6 and National Guard, 1-7.

Cecil Allston of Bill Perry's is way out in front in individual scoring with 218 points, and a 27.2 average. Jack Williams of Ellis Tile is in second place with 21.9 average; Jimmy White of the Cotton Mill, 20.2; Terry Wheeler, Ellis Tile, 18.4 and Bobby Ashley, Jaycees, 17.6.

No games will be played Thursday night due to the DSA banquet of Edenton Jaycees. Play Friday night will pit National Guard against Bill Perry's at 7:30 o'clock, and Ellis Tile against the Jaycees at 8:30. The third game of the evening will find Chris-Craft playing the Cotton Mill.

Collins Joins Edenton Firm

Howard A. Collins, 221 South Oakum Street, has become associated with Edenton Savings and Loan Association.

Collins replaces Wayne Ashley, who recently resigned to accept a position with First National Bank of Eastern North Carolina here. Collins was formerly with Belk-Tyler.

Collins is a lifelong resident of Chowan County and is a graduate of John A. Holmes High School and Hardbargers Business College in Raleigh, where he earned a junior accounting degree.

He is married to the former Theda Goodwin and they have one son.

Collins is a member of Edenton Jaycees and Edenton Methodist Church.
