CLUBWOMAN HONORED—Edenton BPW Club last Thursday honored Mrs. Beulah Boswell, right, as Clubwoman of the Year. Shown making the presentation of flowers and silver cup is Miss Edna Snell, club president.

BPW Honor Mrs. Beulah Boswell

Mrs. Beulah Boswell, owner of Edenton Restaurant, has been chosen as BPW Clubwoman of the Year.

Mrs. Boswell was honored last Thursday night at a banquet at her restaurant. This is one of the top two awards given by the BPW and the highest award a clubwoman can receive.

Mrs. Lena M. Leary, a past winner of the clubwoman honor, made the presentation.

Miss Edna Snell, club president, presided at the banquet.

In making the presentation, Mrs. Leary said of Mrs. Boswell:

"Her contribution of her time, money, loyalty and service has been invaluable to our club and our community. These qualities, too, have reached out to bring recognition to our club in the district, Eastern Area and in the North Carolina Federation. She has attended most district and area meetings and many of the state conventions, always bringing inspiration and prestige to our club members and our club.

"She not only has served our club well but is an outstanding, energetic and loyal citizen of Edenton and Chowan County, including district chairman of Ocean Hiway Association, which has been a tremendous factor in bringing recognition to Edenton and Chowan County on a national level. She is also at the present time chairman of the Tourist Committee for the Chamber of Commerce, and last but not least, first vice president of the Edenton BPW Club."

She also pointed out that Mrs. Boswell "has truly lived by the creed of our federation and our objectives to elevate the standards of women."

Mrs. Boswell is a charter member of the club, having joined in July, 1948, and has served in many capacities.

Keep Those Cards And Letters Coming, Folks!

One of the most gratifying experiences any author can have is to know that he is read . . . and one of the quickest and surest ways to find out is to make an erroneous statement.

Take last week's ad, for example . . . we claimed T. J. Jarvis, one of Currituck County's late great illuminaries, was born in the house near the N. C. Historical Highway Marker proclaiming that this was the house he was born in.

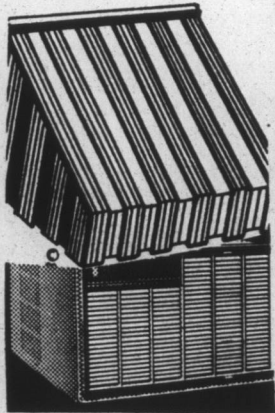

Well, now, what we didn't know, and what has happened since the marker was erected is — the original Jarvis home was demolished and a new brick structure has stood in its place for several years.

Thanks to our readers, we were soon put back on course, and are herewith passing the information to all and sundry, including the State Department of Archives and History.

Keep those cards and letters coming, folks!

S. S. Recipients Should Report Change Of Address Promptly

Residents of the Chowan County area who are receiving monthly social security checks are reminded to report directly to the Elizabeth City office any change of address or other events affecting continued receipt of their checks. Reports may be made by mail, phone or in person. Appropriate report forms are available at the Elizabeth City office.

This reporting method enables the district office to take advantage of the increased capacity of its high speed communications circuits to transmit information to record centers. Until recently, social security beneficiaries were encouraged to notify the Social Security Administration about the occurrence of these events by mailing pre-addressed postcard forms to a record center.

Events that affect receipt of monthly social security checks, in addition to address changes, are starting or stopping work (employment), marriage or remarriage in some instances, divorce and death.
