The RA's of the Baptist Church will meet next Tuesday night at 7 o'clock in the fellowship hall.

The Girl Scouts of Edenton went to Chicoteague and Assiteague Saturday. Fifteen Girl Scouts went and Mary Jo Williams of Suffolk, a former Girl Scout of Edenton, joined them. They went sight-seeing and toured several places. The adults who accompanied them were:

Mrs. Herbert Hollowell, Mrs. Nathan Dail, Mrs. Taylor Brown and Mrs. Bernard Burroughs.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Evans went to Virginia on Saturday.

The College of the Albemarle presented its fifth of a series of annual spring concerts featuring choral and organ compositions by Johannes Brahms, at Edenton Baptist Church Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The conductor was Dr. Clifford Bair of the College of the Albemarle.

Club Members Tour Hospital

The Health Careers Club of John A. Holmes High School took a field trip Friday to Norfolk General Hospital.

Twelve students toured the hospital. Transportation was provided by Mrs. Lane Kinion and Mrs. George Holmes.

The next club project is sponsoring a benefit dance for the new Chowan Hospital. Community support is sought.

DRAFT BOARD OFFICE CLOSED MAY 1 AND 2

Juniors Present Prom

With a theme of "It's a Small World," the Junior Class presented Chowan's Junior-Senior Prom Friday evening. A windmill from Holland, Eiffel Tower from France, a Gondola from Venice and a bridge under an Oriental arch were representatives of each country.

Speeches were given by Dean Peele, president of the Junior Class; Matthew Garrett, president of the Senior Class; Sharole Goble, Tommy Bass and Vickie Goodwin.

The entertainment was opened with "Come Fly With Me In My Beautiful Balloon," and ended with "It's a Small World After All."

Rhonda Bunch and Jerry Peele, prom co-chairmen, presented a gift of appreciation to members of the prom faculty committee. They were: John Ward, Mrs. Barbara Ward, Miss Ceceilia Willoughby, Miss Catherine Aman and Everett White. In honor of her 16th anniversary of working on Junior-Seniors, Mrs. Marvis Hendrix was given 16 red roses. Winston Dail, chairman, was also presented a gift.

The Student Steering Committee consisted of Rhonda Bunch, co-chairman, Jerry Peele, co-chairman, Dean Peele, Wanda Ward, Dorothy White, Paul Copeland, Faye Chappell, Sharole Goble, Vickie Goodwin, Jimmy Peele and Tommy Bass.
