Girl Scout News

By Nan Stutzman, Scribe

April 26 the Girl Scouts went to Norfolk. We drove up in cars. The drivers were Mr. Stutzman, Mr. Shelby and Mrs. Stutzman.

We went to Treasure Island at 10 o'clock. It is in the azalea gardens. We went from the azalea gardens to Treasure Island on a ferry boat.

After that we went on a bus around the Naval Base. We saw and heard a lot about the ships and airplanes. When we finished it was 12 o'clock.

We then went to the zoo. We ate there. After lunch we looked around the zoo. There were a lot of animals. They were very interesting.

After that we went to the planetarium. We saw the stars and the planets. We learned about clouds, storms and the sky. We were told our horoscope.

After that we rode home and arrived in Edenton about 6:30 P. M. Everybody was tired, but we all had a good time.

Funeral services were held at 2 P. M. Saturday in Williford Memorial Chapel with Rev. E. L. Earnhardt in charge. Burial was in Beaver Hill Cemetery.

Williford Funeral Home had charge of arrangements.

AUXILIARY MEETING
