Little boy of a year or more,
And a girl of half past three
Have been my joy for the past two weeks—
Surely a gift of God to me.

They'll soon be gone and I'll be so blue,
No little girl calling, "I've got flowers for you."
However, I'm grateful to their Mom and Dad
For giving me this joy I've had.

It just takes a grandparent to understand the happiness of having grandchildren around. All grandparents are foolish about 'em, but mostly grandmothers. To hold them tight, listen to their tales of imagination and get much love and kisses is just plain happiness. My small granddaughter has an imaginary friend named Tom, who is always with her and protects her. I would that my own imagination could be strong enough to keep her with me but my heart will almost break when I start gathering up toys and baby things after they're gone. My eyes spill over, even as I am writing this.

Have you visited the library lately? Well, it would be good to go for several reasons, particularly now to see the display of Presidents' Medals which John Taylor has collected for exhibition. Our community is fortunate to have folks like the John Taylors settle in our town.

Summertime is gad-about time. This past week Mrs. J. J. (Kathleen) Ross and her daughter Betsy of Greenville visited Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ross in Syracuse, N. Y., and Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Benton at Riverridge, N. J. Then for the weekend Mrs. Ross attended a retirement party in Raleigh given for her brother, Howard Ellis, who recently retired from the N. C. State Extension program.

Several of our local beauty shoppes were represented at a three-day hairdressers' convention at Atlantic Beach, sponsored by Honeycutt Beauty Supply Company of Greenville. Those making the trip to Atlantic Beach were Mrs. Irma Allsbrook, Mrs. Ann Jenkins, Mrs. Margaret White, Mrs. Camilla Driver, Mrs. Doris Jean Baker and Mrs. Jo Anne Davis.

Then Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Oglesby have returned after visiting their son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Arthur I. Holleb in New York City.

With the photograph contest going on, with several organizations participating, there certainly were many pictures taken here Tuesday. Since I am definitely not photogenic (my pictures look too much like me), I detest watching the "birdie." However, for our own Eastern Star Chapter, I "sat." Maybe this time my picture will be BEAUTIFUL!

One small hint: Rubber should never come in contact with silver. Putting a rubber band around a piece of silverware will leave a permanent stain.

If any of my readers have a family of new puppies to give away, you can contact the new Penwell Pet Shop and they will try to find homes for them.

Before you lay aside your Chowan Herald, read the information in Kate's Shopping Guide.
