HALLOWEEN TREATS — Be ready for the trick or treaters with a tray of these spooky Popcorn Dizzy-Disks. Make them just as scary as you can and surprise the spooks.

The Herald Kitchen

By MILDRED HUSKINS

Don't quiver and quake behind your locked doors just because Halloween and the spooky trick-or-treaters are coming. Prepare for them.

Get ready to strike back. When the ghostly knocks sound, throw open the door and thrust forth a tray of these goblin-faced popcorn Dizzy-Disks. They will send the spooks scattering.

The magic potion that helps you mold the popcorn into the basic circle shape in an easy-to-make corn syrup glaze. The food coloring of your choice can help you create ghostly green, parboiled purple, outrageous orange or blotchy blue complexions for these tasty denizens of the trick-or-treat bag.

National Popcorn Week corresponds with the spooky time so be tricky and return the scare.

Halloween night, October 31, is the spookiest time of the year. Witches fly about on brooms, hobgoblins play tricks, and ghosts walk on earth. Or so tradition tells us.

Celebration of Halloween goes back to Druid time. The jack-o'-lantern custom arrived in this country with the Irish. It seems that a miserly Irishman, known to history only as Jack, was barred from heaven because of his stinginess and forbidden to enter hell because of his practical jokes on the devil. He was condemned to walk the earth with his lantern until Judgment Day.

But, enough about the day. What about the food?

Popcorn Dizzy-Disks
2 quarts warm, unsalted popped popcorn.
2/3 cup light corn syrup.
2/3 cup sugar.

1 teaspoon salt.
Food coloring.

Keep popcorn hot and crisp in a 300-degree oven. In a heavy, medium saucepan, combine syrup, sugar and salt. Bring to boiling over medium heat; boil two minutes, stirring constantly. Add food coloring until desired color is obtained. Pour syrup slowly over popcorn and toss lightly to coat kernels evenly. Pack popcorn into three buttered, miniature layer cake pans. Let cool. Twist popcorn disks to loosen and tap out of pans. Decorate each disk to resemble a pumpkin, an owl, a witch, or other seasonal symbol.

If you're planning a party for the tricksters, serve Pumpkin Cake and Witches' Brew.

Pumpkin Cake
3 1/2 cups sifted flour.
2 1/2 cups sugar.
2 teaspoons baking soda.
1 1/2 teaspoons salt.
1/4 teaspoon baking soda.
1 teaspoon cinnamon.
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg.
3/4 cup shortening.
6 tablespoons frozen orange juice concentrate, thawed.
6 tablespoons water.
1 can applesauce.
3 eggs.
1 1/2 cups raisins.
1 cup chopped nuts.
Into large mixing bowl, sift together flour, sugar, soda, salt, baking powder and spices. Add shortening, undiluted orange juice,

Baptist Group Plans Meeting

Local Baptist ministers and their wives are making preparations for their annual convention which is meeting in Fayetteville for the first time in 97 years.

The ministers' wives group will be meeting for their fellowship and inspirational meeting at the Snyder Memorial Baptist Church (Westmont at Rockledge) November 10 at 1:30 P. M. for a tea, followed by the business and program session at 2:30 P. M.

Mrs. John Lawrence of Raleigh, president of the wives group, said this week that the ministers' wives in Fayetteville were making plans to provide transportation back to the Civic Auditorium for the wives, following their meeting. "This has been a real problem in the past," she said, "and this year we hope nobody stays away from their meeting because they do not have transportation."

The speaker for the afternoon session for the wives will be Dr. James Blackmore, now serving as director of publications at Southeastern Seminary at Wake Forest. Dr. Blackmore is the author of the book "The Preacher's Temptations," which was selected by Pulpit Digest Books as their selection for February, 1968.
