

MRS. THOMAS G. GRAHAM

Snider - Graham Vows

Miss Barbara Ann Snider was married to Thomas de-Graffenried Graham on Easter Day, March 29, at Saint John's Episcopal Church in Clearwater, Fla.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Alan J. Snider of Clearwater, who founded Sun Coast Hospital in Largo, Fla. The bridegroom, son of Dr. and Mrs. William Graham of Durham, is a great grandson of Gov. William A. Graham of North Carolina, on his father's side, and a descendant of Landgrave Baron Christopher de-Graffenried, who founded New Bern on his mother's side.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of silk organza over peau fashioned with empire bodice, high neckline and lantern sleeves accented by appliques of re-embroidered venise lace. The chapel length train was held at the waist with the venise lace. Her chapel length veil of silk illusion was held by face framing real rose buds. She carried a cluster bouquet of white roses, centered with Sweetheart roses and accents of baby's breath with white satin streamers.

The bride's sister, Miss Gail Helen Snider of Los Angeles, served as maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Joan Snider Aughe of Clearwater and Miss Betty Margaret Snider of Los Angeles, sisters of the bride; Mrs. Kay Woelfel Scott of Lakeland, Fla.; Mrs. Eileen Hosking Radeker of Irvington, N. Y., and Mrs. Esther Huber Gurer of Chapel Hill.

The bridegroom's brother, William Alexander Graham, III, of Durham served as best man. The ushers were Charles deGraffenried Upjohn and George Van Horne Upjohn of Scarsdale, N. Y., and John Washington Graham, Jr., of Edenton, cousins of the bridegroom; Alan Herbert Snider of Clearwater, the bride's brother, and Ronald Jay Short of Durham.

The bride and bridegroom are both graduates of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, where they met in 1966. Mrs. Graham is a programmer-analyst at the UNC Computation Center and will complete her MA degree in French this summer. Mr. Graham is a member of the second year law class at the University of North Carolina.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Edward Chalkant and Rev. Dr. Robert Lambert.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The couple will live in Chapel Hill.

From The Herald Kitchen

By MILDRED HUSKINS

Cakes are always good copy.

They are also good eating. We have told you often that we collect pound cake recipes and we promised a loyal supporter last week we'd include our sour cream pound cake recipe in the kitchen this week.

Well, we will. We will also give you a new one but are a bit embarrassed for we are not sure where it came from.

We clipped it recently from some publication with the intention to try it but just didn't get around to it until this week. It brought rave notices from the tasters at the coffee bar.

Brown Sugar Pound Cake makes a mammoth cake and is delicious with or without frosting. We used a white butter cream frosting and it worked well.

Brown Sugar Pound Cake
2 sticks butter or margarine.

1 cup shortening.
1 box brown sugar (we used the dark brown).
1 cup white sugar.
5 eggs.
1 cup sweet milk.
3/4 cups plain flour.
1 teaspoon baking powder.
1/2 teaspoon salt.
1 1/2 teaspoons vanilla.
2 teaspoons lemon extract.
1 cup chopped pecans.
Cream butter, shortening and sugars. Add eggs one at a time, beating well after each addition. Mix baking powder and salt with flour and add flour mixture alternately with milk to the batter beginning and ending with flour. Add flavorings and nuts. Bake in a 10-inch tube pan at 325 degrees for one and one-half hours. The pan should be greased and floured.

Sour Cream Pound Cake
1 cup sour cream.
1 cup shortening.

3 cups sugar.
6 eggs.
3 cups flour.
1/4 teaspoon soda.
1 tablespoon vanilla.
1 tablespoon lemon extract.

Cream sour cream and shortening. Add sugar gradually then eggs alternately with the flour and soda which has been sifted together. Add flavorings. Turn into a greased and floured 10-inch tube pan and bake at 325 degrees for one and one-half hours.

Banana Split Cake, which we picture here today, is a delicious and festive dessert that blends all the flavors its name promises. Mashed ripe bananas and chopped nuts are added to the yellow cake before baking. The easy filling is just strawberry ice cream, and the frosting is a delectable combination of
