

BROAD STREET BULLETIN...

By Kate

Many of us bury our head in the sand
When the burden gets too great;
But there comes a moment in the sands of time,
When we must stand tall and straight.

For God gives us many blessings,
In abundance every day.
So don't forget to count them,
And thank Him when you pray.

After a beautiful weekend, edge of the streams.
It's cool and rainy today again. Today is good "snoczing" weather—to catch up on that much needed rest (if you can).

Several of our friends were extra good to us this weekend by bringing delectable food to help with the cooking for our guests. We do appreciate it very much, having such kind friends.

Our house is too quiet, almost gloomy, since our company left Tuesday. Never have we enjoyed visitors any more. Some of the fun was recalling by-gone days and looking at old pictures. Then our company was exceptionally pleased with our town. They thought it was the prettiest and cleanest town they had ever seen in the South. Gee, we were proud!

Here are four lines which someone gave me and I think they're quite applicable to many of us:
I love by bifocals,
My dentures fit me fine.
My living bra upholds me,
But Oh! how I miss my mind.

If you'd like to fix some dandelion greens, here's the way we cook them. Fry several pieces of bacon and drain. Scald cleaned greens in dripping, turning over and over. Salt, then add a mixture of 1 tablespoon sugar, 1 egg and 1 tablespoon vinegar. Remove from fire and stir thoroughly.

A salute to one of the nicest gals I know—Mrs. DeLores (Ed) Earnhardt.

Here's hoping this weather will clear up and bring another nice weekend for the Flower Show sponsored by the Garden of Eden Club. These gals have been working hard to make the show a success, so let's all cooperate by having our yards neat and trim.

Kitchen Shower For Bride-elect

Last week they had an honest-to-goodness fire in a cloak room of the Swain Elementary School and you've never seen a more orderly and quick evacuation of children. It shows good training in case of emergency.

TYNER — Miss Margaret Nixon was honored at a kitchen shower in the home of Mrs. Fahey Byrum, Jr., on April 10 from 8 to 10 P. M. Misses Wanda Morris, Emily Byrum, Belinda Perry and Pat Nixon were hostesses.

The herring are rolling in the creeks and ditches. Everywhere you look you can see them and the herring dippers are having a field day. It's a pretty sight to see the silvery herring rolling and flopping along the

A color scheme of yellow and green was used with yellow and white spring flowers. Mrs. Byrum poured punch and Miss Morris served the block cake. Approximately 15 guests were registered.
