

BROAD STREET BULLETIN...

What a difference the sunshine makes
After Clouds and rain,
Even the birds are happier
When warm days come again.

Seems like all God's earth
Has come alive once more.
Truly all God's handiwork
Is lovelier than before.

I'm glad that I can see
The beauty of Spring again,
Knowing that each flower and plant
Is God's glorious gift to man.

I suppose one must go through a period of illness to appreciate being able to once again see the beauty of the earth. As I sit on our back porch and watch the flowers in bloom and all our birds hopping around, it's then I'm so glad to be alive.

Someone sent me the following poem and to me it typifies the feeling of us all at times:

I dreamed Death came the other night,
And Heaven's gate swung wide.
With kindly grace an angel ushered me inside.
Add there to my astonishment good folks I'd known on earth.

Some, I'd judged and labeled an unfit of little worth. Indignant words rose to my lips,
But never were set free. For every face showed stunned surprise—
No ONE expected me!

Many of my friends and my youngest son Martin attended the C. F. O. meeting at Nags Head last week and it must have been a wonderful experience. They all seemed to be filled with the glory of God and on "speaking terms" with the Master Himself. It was an opportunity to renew a close relationship with God.

Some good friends brought us some sea mullets from the beach this weekend, and they were delicious. It was almost as good as catching them ourselves.

Attendance at our Methodist Church is growing by leaps and bounds, even the front seats are filled. We do have a fine minister, one who also walks with God and leads his people on the same path.

Our Dorothy Bufflap has spent several days of her vacation with us this week and what a pleasure it has been. We have such good conversations and she is very good company. I do wish her stay with us could be longer.

Here is a recipe for Lemon Chess Pie, given to me by Helen Jackson. It is easy to make and very scrumptious:

1 1/2 cups sugar.
1 tbsp. corn meal.
4 eggs.
2 lemons and juice and grated rind of one.
1 stick margarine (melted).
1 unbaked pie crust.
Mix sugar and meal, add eggs, lemon juice and rind. Add melted margarine. Pour in crust and bake 40 minutes at 350 degree.

A Few Hints
Scour discolored china with a solution of baking soda and vinegar and salt to bring it back to its original whiteness.
The tops of children's socks will stay up better if dipped in a medium starch solution.
Soak coffee cups in hot water and lemon juice to remove stains.
