

From The Herald Kitchen: Get Ready For Picnic Time

By MILDRED HUSKINS
Warm days speak of less time in the kitchen and more time in the garden. They mean more picnics in your favorite spot away from home or on the patio.

Make your summer meals hearty but easy on yourself. A cold plate, with a variety of cold cuts shouts for our old favorite, potato salad. Our favorite recipe has come down unwritten from our mother who made the most delicious potato salad from the leftover mashed potatoes. Now comes the instant mashed potatoes and a real elegant recipe for potato salad with a name which indicates someone experimented and came up with a winner. This potato salad is colorful and shapely. You can cut it in squares, wedges, or even in rounds by using a sharp biscuit cutter. Experiment a bit and try this recipe.

Serendipity Potato Salad
Instant Mashed Potatoes (for six servings).
1/3 cup mayonnaise or salad dressing.
1 tablespoon vinegar.
1 can (4 1/2 oz.) deviled ham.
1 tablespoon sliced green onion.

1/2 cup chopped green pepper.
3 tablespoons pickle relish.
Lettuce.
Tomatoes.

Prepare instant potatoes as package directs; cool. Combine with remaining ingredients except lettuce and tomatoes, mixing well. Line an eight-inch square pan with waxed paper; turn mixture into pan. Chill overnight. Lift out of pan and cut into six rounds or squares. To serve: Place each piece of salad on lettuce leaves. Garnish with tomato slices or quarters. Serves six.

Another recipe we came upon for potato salad may appeal to you. We haven't tried it yet but it is made from frozen French fries (dropped into boiling water, then removed from the heat and allowed to blanch five minutes) cooled and mixed with the regular favorite ingredients of hard-cooked eggs, celery, minced onion, vinegar and salad dressing.

Of course, the barbecue grill is already out and in use several evenings a week. Delicious yellow and white corn is now coming into the market in abundance and is economical enough to include some corn-on-the-cob for the next barbecue crowd. Just remove the husks and silks from ears of corn. Place each ear on a piece of heavy-duty foil. Spread each with one tablespoon soft butter. Sprinkle with salt and pepper. Wrap in foil, double wrapping if fire is very hot, or if corn is to be placed directly on charcoal briquets that have reached the light gray ash stage. Roast 20 to 25 minutes, less turning occasionally.

Passing a plate of cookies is the easiest way to please the gang. Fill the jar the easy way and be all ready for the munchers at home and for adding to the picnic basket.

This recipe for Pie Crust Peanut Crispies won a Pillsbury Bake-Off prize for an Alabama homemaker.
Pie Crust Peanut Crispies
1 pkg. pie crust mix.
1 cup firmly packed brown sugar.
1/2 cup peanut butter.
3 tablespoons water.
In medium mixing bowl, combine all ingredients. Stir well until mixture forms a dough. Shape into one-inch balls, using about one teaspoon of dough for each. Place two inches apart on ungreased cookie sheets. Flat-ten with a fork which has been dipped in sugar. Bake at 375 degrees for eight to 10 minutes, or until light golden brown and slightly puffy. Cool cookies slightly before removing from cookie sheets. Makes about four dozen cookies.

Spicy Apple Cookies
2 cups sifted all-purpose flour.
1 teaspoon baking soda.
1/2 teaspoon salt.
1 1/2 teaspoons cinnamon.
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg.
1/2 teaspoon ground cloves.
1 1/2 cups peeled and chopped tart apples.
1 cup chopped walnuts.

1 cup seedless raisins.
1 pkg. (6 oz.) butterscotch pieces.
1 1/4 cups firmly packed brown sugar.
1/2 cup softened butter or margarine.
2 eggs.
1/4 cup apple juice.
Mix and sift flour, baking soda, salt and spices. Stir in apples, walnuts, raisins and butterscotch bits. Combine brown sugar and butter. Beat until creamy. Add eggs and apple juice to sugar-butter mixture. Beat until blended. Gradually stir in flour mixture. Drop by tablespoonsful on well-greased cookie sheets. Bake at 400 degrees for eight to 10 minutes. Remove cookies from sheets immediately. Cool on rack. Makes about five dozen.
