

BROAD STREET BULLETIN...

By Kate

Have you counted your blessings today?
I have and there are many—
A place to sit and watch the birds,
Care and love a-plenty.

I'm such a lucky person,
With friends and loved ones, too,
Thank God for all these blessings,
For flowers and skies so blue.

So take a little time each day
And count your blessings, too,
You'll find that good outweighs the bad
In all the things you do.

Most times when we're feeling good, we take the good things in life for granted. Then when sorrow or sickness comes to us, we're only too glad to count our blessings.

Rest for the laborer, light for the way,
Grace for the trials, help from above,
Unfailing sympathy, undying love.

Our friend Lena Jones has gone to Montreal for the summer and we certainly do miss her. She has brightened up many days for me.

"Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises."—I Peter 1:4.

So many dear friends have brought me flowers which I love. It makes me so happy to know that my friends will take time from their busy days to remember me with flowers.

Here is a good recipe for Pecan Puffs, given to me by my neighbor, Mrs. Ida Mae Roberson:

1 lb. butter.
1 cup confectioners' sugar.
1/3 cup granulated sugar.
1/2 tsp. salt.
4 cups plain flour.
2 tsp. vanilla.
2 cups chopped pecans.
Cream butter, then add sugar and remaining ingredients. Roll in small balls and chill. Bake on cookie sheet at 350 degrees for 25 minutes. Roll in confectioners' sugar while hot and again when cold.

The following poem was given to me by Mrs. Ida Mae Roberson. It expresses so many thoughts which come to me often:

What God Hath Promised
God hath not promised skies always blue,
Flower-strewn pathways all our lives through.

God hath not promised sun without rain,
Joy without sorrow, peace without pain.

God hath not promised we shall not know,
Toil and temptation, trouble and woe.

He hath not told us we shall not bear
Many a burden, many a care.

But God hath promised strength for the day,

A Few Hints
Greasy frying pans will clean easier if a teaspoon of baking soda is added to the water in which the pans will soak.

Mayonnaise, in a pinch, will give a good cleaning and shine to pots and pans. Rinse well afterward.

A variety of colored rubber bands will help you identify many items in the refrigerator.

Morning; four sisters: Cora Goods, Erma Bailey and Deloris Tyson of Port Chester; Lipda Morning of Edenton; four brothers: Marvin Morning of Port Chester; Thurston, Willie and Calvin Morning, all of Edenton; a grandfather, James Valentine, and a grandmother, Mrs. Annie Morning. Rowson Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Heavy Damage In Car Mishap

A car was damaged $1,000 Tuesday morning when it struck a power pole at the intersection of Coke Avenue and Tyler Lane. The driver was not injured. Police said the car was being operated by Anthony Hathaway, III, 22-year-old Negro. Hathaway said the car went out of control when a tire blew out. James Augustus Leary, 29-year-old Negro, of Tynor, was slightly injured Monday afternoon when struck by a car at Broad and King Streets. Driver of the car was G. W. Mizelle, 7 Westover Heights. Leary allegedly ran into the car while crossing the street. He was treated and released from Chowan Hospital.
