

BROAD STREET BULLETIN...

By Kate

There's so much love in this world
And it can all be yours for the asking;
The love of God and the love of friends
Is the sunshine you'll be basking.

I'm an out-door person, you will no doubt realize and I feel like I'm in jail when I must stay indoors. The yard and my birds mean so much to me. Won't you take time out a few minutes a day and look at God's wonderful world?

There's not much I can write this (Wednesday) morning as my strength seems to be poor. But I must leave you this message: Be kind, be loving and trust God.

Just a short time after writing the above, I was admitted again to Chowan Hospital, where all the hospital folks are so good to me. But I hope to return home after regaining more strength.

Choral Society Reactivation Set

Plans are being formulated for the coming season's activities of the Albemarle Choral Society. Dates have been established for series of concerts in December and March. All singers in the Albemarle area of senior high school age and over are cordially invited to participate in the society's program.

First rehearsal meetings and registration of old and new members will be held as follows:

Southwest Division, Tuesday, September 8, 7:45 P. M., St. Paul's Episcopal Church Parish House, Edenton.

Northeast Division, Thursday, September 10, 7:45 P. M., Room 143 ground floor of the College of the Albemarle main building.

Materials for the first concert series have been ordered and will be on hand for a reading at the first rehearsal. Arrangements have been made for instrumental groups from East Carolina University to assist in the concerts which will be presented under the auspices of the COA Lyceum Series and Continuing Education Division.

Everett Dinner Features Belmon

J. S. Sen. Henry Belmon, (R-Okla.) will be in Washington August 25 to speak at a $10 plate Victory Dinner for R. Frank Everett, candidate for Congress from the First Congressional District.

Sen. Belmon will fly into Washington in the afternoon and speak at 7:30 P. M. at the Brentwood Club.

Everett said that Sen. Belmon has a very active interest in this district because his brother lived around Washington before moving to Oklahoma and that he was very pleased to be invited back to Eastern North Carolina and Washington in particular.

Sen. Belmon is just one of the many distinguished Republican speakers," Everett said, "who will be visiting and speaking in my behalf during the campaign." Everett added that the public is cordially invited to the rally in Washington.

FOR COOKING ONLY

A modern gas range in your camper, trailer or mobile home is a blessing, but remember it's for cooking only. Never use any gas range for heating, whether you're at home or out camping.

REV. MARK W. STONE

Virginia Pastor Guest Minister

Revival services are scheduled at the Rocky Hock Baptist Church August 30 through September 6 at 7:45 o'clock each evening.

Rev. Mark Stone, pastor of the London Bridge Baptist Church, Virginia Beach, Va., will be the guest speaker.

Mr. Stone is a native of Thomasville and has done evangelistic work in Florida, South Carolina, North Carolina, Virginia, West Virginia and Texas. His television experience includes a weekly TV show, "Ministers Forum," Portsmouth, Va. Also radio services in South Carolina and Virginia. His hobbies include golf and working with young people and their problems.

The Rocky Hock Choir under direction of Jack Evans, will present special music each evening.

Nursery facilities will be open for each service.

Plans and preparations are being made for a great revival.

Dr. John Carlton (interim) pastor of Rocky Hock and Mr. Stone, guest speaker, join together in extending a cordial invitation to attend.
