

BROAD STREET BULLETIN...

By Kate
 Though discharged from Chowan Hospital Tuesday afternoon, the writer of this column is still to weak to write.

The Autumn Sports

To some people, the first sign of autumn is a falling leaf; to others, it's a boy with a football. In either case, the now-chilly air calls for a sportsmanlike approach to keeping young athletes warm. The player vote goes to comfortable, free-and-easy sportswear such as the zip-front sweatershirt of Creslan acrylic fiber. These snugly-hooded knit jackets take that first sprint from scrimmage—and all that follow—in stride; a turn in the automatic washer removes all evidence of the most rough-and-tumble session.

For Brides

To work or not to work? That's a question that faces many young brides. Whether or not the bride works after marriage is a matter the couple should decide jointly, according to "Getting Married," a new booklet from Kimberly-Clark's Life Cycle Center. This is one of the many subjects discussed in the booklet, which is available for ten cents from "Getting Married," Life Cycle Center, Kimberly-Clark Corp., Neenah, Wis. 54956.

ZODIAC PENS BRING LUCK

Budding author or just hoping for good grades? Then forecast your writing success by relying on the stars. Good luck flows all around when you write with a Zodiac pen by Paper Mate. Each of the 12 birth signs—from Aquarius to Capricorn—has its own Zodiac pen, especially horoscoped for individual personality traits. A little extra astrological luck never hurt any writer.
