

Spirited '1776' To Play In Norfolk

"1776," the spirited song and dance musical about the events leading up to the signing of the Declaration of Independence, will be brought to the Center Theater for one performance beginning Friday at 8:30 P. M. and two performances on Saturday at 2:30 P. M. and 8:30 P. M. by a national touring company of 35 actors, singers and dancers.

The only musical ever to be presented in its entirety at the White House (it was to help celebrate Washington's birthday in 1970). "1776" won the Tony Award and the New York Drama Critics' Circle Award as the best musical of the season. "1776" opened in New York March, 1969, to one of the most enthusiastic hats-in-the-air critical receptions in years. Clive Barnes of the New York Times said, "I recommend '1776' without reservation. It is a musical with style, humanity, wit and passion." It might even run until 1976."

John Chapman, writing in the N. Y. Daily News, said, "1776" is an artistic creation such as we do not often find

Chowan High News

By SUSAN JORDAN

"Shape Schools For the 70's," the theme for American Education Week, could well be the theme of the newly organized Chowan High School Chapter of the Future Teachers of America.

This active group of 33 students has elected Joan Jordan of the sophomore class as its president. Other officers include Debra Harrell, vice president; Vicki Byrum, secretary; Beverly Motts, treasurer; Susan Jordan and Charlotte Layton, reporters, and Fred Spruill, historian. Mrs. Margaret Smithson is advisor for the group.

Many of these students are having an opportunity to know what teaching is really like. Approximately 25 of them work one period each day with a classroom teacher.

Thursday, October 29 is Student-Teacher Exchange Day at Chowan High. Each member of the future teacher chapter will actually exchange places with the teacher during one period of the day.

Teacher Appreciation Day is another project of the chapter for American Education Week. On Thursday, October 29, each teacher will be presented a big red apple in recognition of his or her dedication to the profession.

in our theater. It is a magnificent staged and stunningly original musical. It is warm, it is funny, it is moving. See '1776' right away; and Richard Coe of the Washington Post called it "something worth cheering, original, amusing, provocative and inspiring."

"1776" is still drawing capacity crowds in its second year on Broadway.

The story of the shaping and signing of the Declaration of Independence is presented through song, dialogue and even dancing. Humor and dramatic passion mingle as the great minds of the American colonies forge a new nation.

Starring in the large touring company are Don Perkins, as John Adams; Paul Tripp, as Benjamin Franklin; Patrick Hines, as John Dickinson of Pennsylvania; Jerry Lanning, as Rutledge of South Carolina; Tom Gorman, as Stephen Hopkins of Rhode Island, and William Jennings as Thomas Jefferson.

Portraying other members of the Continental Congress are William Kiehl, Reid Shelton, K. C. Wilson, William Major, James F. Cade, Roland Ireland, W. P. Dremak, Kevin O'Leary, Skedge Miller, Tom Sinclair, Gary Beach, Reg Perry, Dan Merriman, Bryan

Young, James Todkill, Joneal Joplin and Dan Enriken, among others.

On the distaff side, Ann Clements plays Abigail Adams and Pat Gorman plays young Mrs. Tom Jefferson.

Larry Small is featured as a Courier who sings the haunting folk-ballad "Momma Look Sharp."

Stuart Ostrow who produced the musical on Broadway, is also presenting it on tour in association with Theater Now, Inc.

"1776" was written by Oscar Award-winner Peter Stone, based on a conception by Sherman Edwards, who also wrote the music and lyrics. The musical numbers were staged by Academy Award-winner Onna White. Scenery and lighting are by Jo Mielziner, and the colorful 18th century costumes are by Patricia Zipprodt. The entire production has been staged by Gordon Hunt, brother of the Broadway director Peter Hunt. Glen Clugston is the musical director.

CANCER CLINIC

The Northeastern Cancer Clinic will be held November 6 with registration beginning at 12 P. M. A chest X-ray will be given to anyone wishing it, along with the examination of the five areas of the body where cancer is most easily found and cured. Only 30 people can be seen at the center each month due to limited facilities, so it is suggested that anyone who wishes to be assured of an appointment should write or call the Cancer Center, Health Department, Elizabeth City, N. C., for a priority. Examinees are asked to bring a robe or housecoat with them.
