

Owl Hoots and Screeches . . .

By MRS. NELLIE M. SANDERS
Director Pottinger Regional Library

eafer to my fears (which include a mild acrophobia or fear of heights) so you can appreciate the effort it required for me to stifle a scream when the glass-enclosed high speed elevator, which was supposed to take us up 23 stories to the revolving restaurant on top of this unique hotel, got stuck because it was overcrowded and stopped on nearly every floor before making it almost to the top and taking us all down again in short spurts. On the second try, with fewer passengers and an operator at the controls, the elevator went faster than my stomach but the view was worth it.

Mr. Mooneyhan Dies In Hospital

James Porter Mooneyhan, 73, died at Chowan Hospital Sunday after suffering an extended illness. He was a retired painter.

Mr. Mooneyhan was a resident of Rocky Mount and the body was taken from Williford Funeral Home to Johnson Funeral Home there for services.

He is survived by three sons: James Moneyhan of Rocky Mount, Lloyd and Henry Mooneyhan of Hyattsville, Md.; two daughters, Mrs. Margaret Winstead of Rocky Mount and Mrs. Peggy Talley of Hertford; three brothers, Blease Mooneyhan of Silver City and Walter and Asa Mooneyhan of Jacksonville, Fla.; four sisters: Mrs. Ruby Hillman of Washington, Mrs. Nettie Brown of Sumter, S. C.; Mrs. Louise Fuller of Jacksonville, Fla. and Miss Susie Mooneyhan of Columbia, S. C.; 16 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted at Johnson Funeral Chapel in Rocky Mount on Wednesday with Rev. Lawrence Evans officiating. Burial was at Pineview Cemetery.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT
Mr. and Mrs. James C. Spencer of Virginia Beach, Va., announce the birth of a daughter, Amy Lynn, on October 9. Mrs. Spencer is the former Mary Sue Elliott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Elliott of Tyner.

The human race has its problems, including you and me.

HUNG UP IN ATLANTA—In between meetings with other good speakers, there was time for sightseeing such as the tour of Underground Atlanta (an area which was hidden 50 years ago by a vast system of viaducts near the Railroad Terminal and which is being restored to its gay 90's appearance), a quick shopping trip to Rich's and my nemesis, the Regency Hyatt House. Claustrophobia has plagued me for years but I refuse to
