Edenton Rotarians are having a holiday so far as club meetings are concerned.
 Last Thursday night they had their annual Christmas party at the Country Club.
 Then the meeting has been called off this week due to Christmas, and because of New Year's Day, the meeting for next week has been called off. Which means that the next regular meeting will be held Thursday, January 7. President Tom Surratt hopes every Rotarian will be over the holiday spirit and be present at that meeting. A feature at the Christmas party was a stringed trio with Jesse Harmon at the helm, which was very enjoyable. And Jesse can pick a wicked banjo—just about as good as the guys play on the television show Hee-Haw.

It seems that there's always something crops up to take the joy out of life. Here we are in the midst of the Christmas season—and what do we get? Just a nice little notice from the "Infernal" Revenue Service and the State Department of Revenue reminding us that the quarterly payment for estimated income tax is due and that the payment better be sent in before January 15.

Then, too, the first of January is just around the corner and that is the month everybody must trail to the tax office and give in their belongings in order to figure your taxes for 1971. Then, too, if you do not list during the month a stiff penalty will be added. Better attend to this matter early as possible in order to avoid a waiting in line.

Just came across another one of Kate's collection of recipes. Here 'tis:
FRIENDSHIP

Take: 2 heaping cups patience; 1 heart full of love; 2 handfuls of generosity. Add: A dash of laughter; a full cup of understanding; 2 cups of loyalty. Mix well and sprinkle generosity with kindness. Spread this irrefutable delicacy over a lifetime and serve to everybody you meet.

Dr. Lloyd Hobbs up in Blacksburg, Va., must know my favorite brand of cigars.
 In the mail this week was a box of 50 cigars and to say the least some of 'em will be smoked during the holidays while meditating on the difference of celebrating the Lord's birthday alone instead of having a companion who was always as busy as a bee a week or two before getting ready for an occasion of great joy for her.
 Tanks, Doc!

The young folks at the Methodist Church held a hay ride one night this week when they visited around and sang Christmas carols. There was a little difference in this event than some years ago—they didn't have any hay in their vehicles.

And speaking about singing Christmas carols, a group of young people stood outside my house the other night and sang a number of them. It was mighty sweet of them and again emphasized the blessing that comes from friendship. Then on Saturday evening another group of young ladies came to the house with a fruit cake box filled with all kinds of cookies, candies and nuts. They said, "we hope you will enjoy what's in the box," and I've already enjoyed some of the things but even the thought back of the present is far more relished despite the deliciousness of the goodies. Tanks, girls!

Ten-year-old Elbridge Smith, Jr., was just about the most surprised youngster in Edenton (and his parents, too) the other day. Back in September, 1968, when he was eight years old, the boy caught a 6-pound, 8-ounce catfish and his parents entered it in the Boone Bait Contest in Florida. They had forgotten all about the incident until last Tuesday when a large and attractive tackle box was received. In the tackle box is over 60 all kinds of artificial

Bank Executive Chosen For Post

A leading Chowan County banker has been named "County Key Banker." He will coordinate the farm and agri-business activities of the N. C. Bankers Association in this area.

NCBA President Bland W. Worley of Winston-Salem has announced that George W. Lewis will serve in the post for the next 12 months. Lewis is executive vice president and cashier of Peoples Bank & Trust Company here.

For 26 years the NCBA has received national recognition for its notable program of service to agriculture and agribusiness in North Carolina. Worley in noting the record, thanked the 100 County Key Bankers for their leadership.

He noted such projects as the annual Farm Credit Conference, the two-week short course in Modern Farming at N. C.
 State University for over 100 young farm leaders from every section of the state.
 These scholarships are provided by the hometown banks. Another project is the annual land judging meet in the interest of soil conservation.

Banks in North Carolina continue as a chief source of money for farming, Worley reported.

FRY GETS NEW POST

gram or specialized aspects of the program. He will give general direction to planning occupational education programs. He will also organize, supervise and evaluate programs of instruction in the area or areas assigned and will recommend personnel to be employed.

The director's duties also include recommending the courses needed, working with lay advisory committees in directing proper emphasis for local programs as well as determining and recommending equipment needed for the programs.

Fry has been in the local school system for 23 years, the last nine and one-half as principal at Holmes High.

Stalls joined the system when Fry became principal and was his assistant at Holmes for two years before becoming principal at Chowan High School. He guided the Chowan program for three years before resigning to enter the personnel placement business with Stuart Patten, band director at Holmes who became Fry's assistant when Stalls moved to Chowan.

Supt. Britt said Fry brings with him to the new position years of administrative and occupational education experience.
 "He should serve the students of Chowan and Bertie counties well in planning and developing programs for the future," he added.

The superintendent welcomed Stalls back "home" and said he is looking forward to working with him again as principal.

Attractive Yard Decorations—Edenton residents have gone to considerable time and expense to decorate their homes and yards for the Christmas season. One of the most original and attractive decorations is the creation by Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Harmon, West Queen Street. From the mail box to the front porch everything tells the story of the season.

NEW LICENSE TAGS

cards which the Post Office has been unable to deliver. Anyone failing to receive an application card may possibly find it at the local license office. "It will take from ten days to two weeks to get application cards from the Department of Motor Vehicles in Raleigh," says Mrs. Niblett, and she suggests that those who have not received an application apply to her office as early as possible so that there will be time to get one out of Raleigh if she does not have it.

Motor vehicle owners who have not received their license application cards by January 1st, should notify the Department of Motor Vehicles in Raleigh.
 "It will take you from ten days to two weeks to get one and you should, therefore, act promptly," says Mrs. Niblett.

CHURCHES PREPARE

special music will be presented.
 Rev. E. L. Earnhardt announced his sermon topic for Edenton Methodist Church on Sunday to be "At The Rainbow's End" taken from Rev. 21:10, 18, 21.

"The Happy Man," taken from Psalm 1 will be the sermon topic for Rev. Robert E. Gray at Edenton Baptist Church at the 11 o'clock morning worship service. His sermon topic for the evening worship is "Four Prophecies" taken from Matthew 24:1-23.

The Churchwomen at St. John's The Evangelist Episcopal Church will present an organ recital by Thomas Mackie on Sunday at 3 P. M.

Most men are actuated by two motives only: the drive to get money and the fight to keep it.

The only people who succumb to hard work are those who kill themselves dodging it.

The folks who live on interest rarely worry about the troubles of the man who lives on wages.

Presents Macbeth—The 12th grade English class of Mrs. Marcus J. McClanahan presented excerpts from Shakespeare's Macbeth.
 The cast included, standing left, Paula Backus, music and stage; top, Linda Nixon, pickpocket; Art Beeler, Fleance; Mike Hall, Macbeth; Robert Worrell, narrator and servant; Allen Quain, Banquo; Ronnie Bass, lighting; standing, Peggy Nixon, Lady Macbeth.

bait made by the Boone Bait Company. Young Smith was declared the winner in the contest. Some of the bait is so pretty it seems a shame to throw them in the water, and now what puzzles Elbridge is what kind of bait to use for the kind of fish he wants to catch.

Golly, I almost forgot to wish every bloomin' reader of this column a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.
