Students Visit Haunted Landmarks

The Junior and Senior English classes at Chowan Academy have recently completed a study on American Folklore. One project centered around a Folklore Collection, which included ghost stories and superstitions obtained from people who live in this area. In addition to their studies in the classroom some students visited the Martin House near Jamesville. This house is said to be haunted by the spirit of a German man who shot himself in one of the rooms The overnight trip was supervised by Miss Ellen Jackson, English teacher at chaperons were Mr. and Mrs. Steve Wilds and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moore. Other members in the group were Jesse Baines, Florence Berryman, Sandy Haste, Suzanne Keel, Cyndi Phillips, Jeffrey White,
