Couple Wed In Valentine Ceremony

FAYETTEVILLE—Miss Bahia Ann Weaver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Paul Weaver, became the bride of Richard Dillard Dixon, III, at 8 P.M. on February 14 in St. Patrick's Catholic Church. Mr. Dixon is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dixon, Jr., of Edenton.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Joseph Thomas, assisted by Monsignor Frederick A. Koch. Nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Otis Phillip Lambert, Jr., organist, and Mr. Lambert, soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a dress of candlelight satin and re-embroidered Alencon lace, designed with an empire waist, high neckline and long fitted sleeves ending in a flounce. Her cathedral-length silk illusion veil, featuring re-embroidered lace appliques and pearls, was worn with a Juliet lace cap. She carried a nosegay of white roses, Georgian orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. Carl Jackson Howell, sister of the bride, of Charlotte, was matron of honor.

Bridesmaids were: Mrs. David Thomas Temple of North Wilkesboro; Mrs. Joseph Clarence Leary, III, of Williamsburg, Va.; Miss Betty Bobbitt Dixon, sister of the bridegroom, of Edenton; Miss Teresa Ann Olive and Miss Rene Dixon Soffe, both of Fayetteville; Miss Linda Carol McMillan of Jacksonville; Miss Carolyn Elizabeth Laws of Raleigh; Miss Julia Middleton Adams of Asheville; and Dr. Teresa Carol Fakoury of Barnwell, S. C.

Flower girl was Elizabeth Thompson of Raleigh and ring bearer was William Paul McMillan of Fayetteville.

Mr. Dixon was his son's best man.

Ushers were: Christopher Bolton Godwin of Fayetteville; Samuel Bobbitt Bixon, brother of the bridegroom, of Edenton; Sanford Webb Thompson of Raleigh; Joseph Clarence Leary, III, of Williamsburg, Va.; William Charles Koury, brother of the bride, of Mooresville; Reginald Griffin of New Bern; Thomas Hardison of Nashville, Tenn.; Elliott Harrell of Raleigh; and Nel Roper of Petersburg, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Weaver entertained at a reception following the ceremony at Bordaux Motor Inn. After a wedding trip to the Caribbean, the couple resides in Fayetteville.

Mrs. Dixon attended Stratford College in Danville, Va., and graduated from Averett College in Danville, with a BA degree in primary education. She completed other studies at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and the University of Hawaii at Honolulu. At the time of her marriage she taught the Third Grade at Chowan Academy.

Mr. Dixon is a graduate of N. C. Wesleyan College in Rocky Mount where he was a member of the Alpha Delta Chi Fraternity. He is manager of Manselle's Dress Shop in Fayetteville.

Gourtesies

Mrs. Vernon Jessup, Mrs. Charles Priest, and Mrs. John Newton Roberson of Fayetteville were hostesses at a luncheon for Miss Weaver and her bridesmaids at Highland Country Club at 1 P.M. on February 13. At that time the bride presented her attendants with gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dillard Dixon, Jr., Mrs. Richard Dillard Dixon, Sr., of Edenton, and Dr. Samuel Leslie Bobbitt of Raleigh, parents and grandparents of the bridegroom, entertained the couple at a cocktail buffet at 7:30 P.M. on February 13 at Highland Country Club following the rehearsal.

The dinner tables were placed in a U-shape and covered with white linen cloths and centered with arrangements of spring flowers in rainbow shades. Bridal cards marked places for 125 guests who included members of the wedding party, parents of the bridal couple and out-of-town guests.

The bridal couple was entertained February 14 at LeGourmet Restaurant at breakfast. Hosts and hostesses were: Mr. and Mrs. Allen Boyd Harless, Jr., Dr. and Mrs. Richard Hines, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hoskins Shepard, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lenox Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henry Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Benbury Wood, and Dr. and Mrs. David Orlo Wright, all of Edenton.

The 100 guests included the bridal party, parents of the bridal couple, and out-of-town guests.

Baptist Sermon

Topic Revealed

Dr. Robert E. Gray, pastor of Edenton Baptist Church, has announced his sermon topic will be "The One Thing God Desires" at the 11 o'clock morning worship on Sunday. Scriptural text will be Hosea 5:15-6:6.

Continuing the series of messages from the book of Hosea, he will take from Hosea 11:1-11 the subject "Let Love Have Its Way."

Special music at the services will include a solo, "Now I Belong to Jesus", by Mrs. Samuel Cox at the morning service. The Sanctuary Choir will render "Ask, and It Shall Be Given You" at the morning worship, and "There's Just Something About That Name" at the evening service. Dr. Gray will sing at the evening service a solo entitled "The Love of God."

Mrs. Robert Rhett Hunt

Bissette - Hunt Married

On Saturday, at 11 A.M. The Church of the Good Shepherd, at Rocky Mount, was the setting for the solemnization of marriage vows between Miss Miriam Morgan Bissette and Mr. Robert Rhett Hunt, both of Raleigh. Rev. Charles I. Penick officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Betty Andrews Bissette of Edenton and Mr. George Neverson Bissette of Naples, Fla. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Bunyan Andrews of Rocky Mount.

Mr. Hunt is the son of Mrs. Geneva Cousins Hunt of Wendell.

Nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Thelma Sasser, organist, and Mr. Bert Capehart Willis, Jr. Mrs. Helen Stayman was mistress of ceremonies.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her grandfather, wore an Alfred Angelo original gown of candle satin, poly organza, and Venise lace, designed by Edythe Vincent. It had a circular half-moon yoke with three bands of Venise lace around the yoke with a self fabric ruffle. The bishop sleeves were cuffed in matching Venise trim.

The fitting A-line silhouette had a gently draped skirt edged in a triple border of Venise lace and ruffle trim. The triple ruffle encircled the complete hemline of the skirt and chapel length train. To complete the ensemble, the bride wore a cathedral length mantilla train trimmed with a matching border of Venise lace. She carried her great-grandmother's heirloom wedding handkerchief, and her bouquet was of roses and babies breath.

Mrs. Thomas Clayton Willis, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and Miss Anne Woods Bissette, also a sister of the bride, was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Alice Marvene Corbett, Virginia Jones Burch, and Helen Rene Hunt, sister of the groom.

The best man was Graham Coolidge Cousins, uncle of the groom, and the groomsmen were: Thomas Clayton Willis, brother-in-law of the bride, John Welch Narron, George Howard Hall, III, Curtis Banks Lee, Jr., and Herbert Arron Dennis.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs Bissette wore an ensemble of candle and brown satin. The groom's mother wore a floral print ensemble of silk and velvet, and the bride's grandmother wore a gown of royal blue crepe.

The after rehearsal party, hosted by the groom's mother, was held at the Carleton House.

Immediately after the reception, hosted by the grandparents of the bride at their home on Thomas Street, the bridal couple left for a wedding trip to Charleston, S. C. For traveling, the bride wore an off-white light wool dress with brown accessories.

Mrs. Hunt graduated from Peace College and attended N. C. State University. She is a dental assistant at Polk Youth Center in Raleigh.

Mr. Hunt is a documents technician for Carolina Power & Light Company in Raleigh.

The couple will make their home in Raleigh.

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to thank everyone for the cards, flowers, food and other expressions of kindness shown to me during the illness and death of my mother, Caroline Moore Tredwell. I would especially like to thank Dr. Hardin, Dr. Lane, Dr. Wright and the entire staff of Chowan Hospital for the care they gave to her.
