Historic Edenton Sponsors Flea Market At Armory

During Bicentennial Weekend, Historic Edenton, Inc. is sponsoring a Flea Market, April 9 from 10 A.M. to 6 P.M. at the National Guard Armory. All those wishing to contribute to this are asked to bring their articles to the National Guard Armory on April 8 from 10 A.M. to 6 P.M.

The funds raised will be used to defray the exhibit and maintenance costs of Historic Edenton, Inc. Anyone wishing to sell independently are welcome to do so. Tables and space will be made available for each of these sellers, and a fee of $5 will be charged.

Those wishing to use a van or truck to sell are also welcome, and parking space will be provided for their convenience. A fee of $10 will be charged for each vehicle participating.

Each of the independent sellers will have to stay with and attend to their own items.

Freedom Sing Plans Made

There will be a Gospel Music Freedom Sing at the Plymouth Shopping Center May 6-9 to celebrate our nation Bicentennial.

There will be gospel groups from all over Eastern North Carolina that will be singing. May 6, 7, and 8 the program will begin at 7 o'clock each night, and May 9 will begin at 2 P.M. after the church services.

The public is invited to attend these services.

Bandon Notebook By Maggie B.

HOME! Ah, how sweet it is!

From the east coast to the west coast and in between, Florida offers many fine attractions, an abundance of natural beauty, many places of historic interest and some mighty fine folk. It's a nice place to visit. But, in my opinion, our quiet, lovely, historic town of Edenton and the surrounding area, encompassed by the beautiful water of the Albemarle Sound and Chowan River and populated by folk who really care about their neighbors is THE place to live. Saturday evening we pulled into our driveway in Arrowhead Beach as the sun was setting over the waters of the Chowan River -- a magnificent sight! Unsurpassed by anything Florida has to offer.

My sincere appreciation is extended to Mrs. Louise Waters from the fine job she did in writing this column in my absence. A big "thank you" also to Kent Rowley, Butch Smith, Hilda Strickland and Debbie Koraska. It's a real pleasure to be associated with the dedicated people at Bandon Chapel who are always ready, willing and able to fill in anywhere a need exists.

Sunday dawned bright and beautiful! Spring was in the air - dogwood trees in full flower, azaleas, jonquils and other delightful spring flowers in bloom - a day to rejoice and be glad in!

Following the opening exercises at Sunday School, Supt. Thomas H. Dilday reported that Mr. Fred Jolly has been transferred from Chowan Hospital to Norfolk General, Mrs. Lillian Naylor (sister of Hilda Strickland) is at Chapel Hill, Mrs. Jeanette Harvey enters the hospital this week and our dear friend, Mrs. Eleanor F. Jackson, is in Chowan Hospital. Please remember all our sick in your prayers as well as Dr. "Bill" and our missionaries, David Smith and Nita Pride.

In the mail today, we had a letter from David Smith in West Africa. There's a lot of food for thought in his letters which I will share with you from time to time. As David studies the Lord's word, questions arise. He thinks then through, offers several alternatives then his conclusion. In this one, he asked "Should a pastor, in his spiritual life by any holier than his congregation? His conclusion was "Any christian has the potential to be as holy as he feels his pastor should be. In fulfilling his own calling, as the pastor fills his, he is completely eligible to be as mature in the Lord as the pastor." If you have any thoughts or opinions on this subject, please let me know and I'll pass them on to David.

Bible Study will be on Wednesday at 7:30 P.M. in Fellowship Hall. Dr. "Bill" will lead the discussion. The Book of Revelations is now being studied. Everyone is invited.

The BCWG will meet on Thursday from 11 A.M. to 3 P.M. Bring a sandwich and join us. If you try it, I bet you'll like it.

Holy Communion will be observed this Sunday at church. Please come on out and bring a friend.

Our Juniors taught by Mrs. Annie Cooke, had as their subject "Relying on God's Reserves" based on II Kings. Aim was that the pupil will have the faith to believe that God will protect them under any circumstances.

"Preparation for the Lord's Return" was the topic for our Adults ably taught by Wm. F. (Butch) Smith, scripture Matt. 24:36-51. Since only our Heavenly Father knows when Christ will return in all His Glory, christians should serve joyfully and faithfully day by day in preparedness and expectation of His coming.

The inspired message of Dr. W. J. B. Livingston was taken from the book of Obadiah, based on the 17th verse, "And The House of Jacob Shall Possess Their Possessions". Jacob is the believer, he trusts in Christ and therefore, he is a child, an heir of the Father, though at times in life's pilgrimage he may not seem to have what God has for him. However, he is free from worry because he knows the time will surely come when the shall have all the riches God has for him, yet he is not "owned" by what he had and he knows that "all things are His". Esau is the other side of the coin. He is possessed by his possessions - but, lacking the greatest, Christ. Eventually, he will be cast into darkness, penniless and alone - possessing nothing.

God calls us to Himself to give us Himself by faith. As we possess Christ, we shall possess our possessions - all that God has for us - forever.

First time visitor to our Chapel this week was Mr. Sam Frye from Williamsburg, Va., guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Blanchard. Welcome and hurry back.

Everybody likes to eat out and on Saturday, from 11 A.M. to 6 P.M. they will have this opportunity. A Fish Fry, sponsored by the Edenton-Chowan Rescue Squad for benefit of Trooper Robert Allen and family, will be held at the Boy Scout Hut in Edenton during these hours. Tickets are only $2.00

Senior Citizens Honored At Center Hill Club House

Senior Citizens of Center Hill Community were honored with a luncheon at the Club House on March 17. One hundred and thirty people were invited. Plates were taken to those who were unable to attend.

Mrs. J. Cameron Boyce, Sr., gave the welcome. Mrs. Harold Leake gave the response.

Lunch was served and fellowship with neighbors, and old friends, reminiscing of happy occasions was much enjoyed.

Mrs. H. T. Hollowell, Sr., president of the club, complimented the guests on the ways they were growing old so graciously, with dignity and respect. She told them a few events of the club and thanked them for the joy they had given to the club members.

Tom White showed slides of the past three Senior Citizens Luncheons which delighted the guests very much.

God Bless America was sung in unison and led by Mr. White.

Rev. Harold Leake of Happy Home Church pronounced the benediction with special remembrance of our Senior Citizens whom God had called to our Heavenly Home.

Special guests were Rev. Frank Cale, former pastor of Center Hill Baptist Church, and his wife Dorothy, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cale.

Mrs. J. P. McNider former resident of Center Hill Community, who now resides at a nursing home in the State of Virginia is brought to this occasion each year by her sons, Carey and Hanford.

A gift was presented to the eldest Senior Citizen, who has reached an active and happy life at the age of 91.

A door prize was presented to a Senior Citizen.

The luncheon was prepared and served by members of Center Hill Extension Club assisted by members of the Young Ladies Sunday School Class of Center Hill Baptist Church and Mrs. Daniel Forbes, who volunteered their help in preparing and serving this luncheon.

For decorations the Bicentennial colors of red, white and blue and American flags were used.
