

Ward Presented High Honor

A four-year student at Randolph-Macon, Ward was one of five students awarded special Presidential Service Honors by academy president Arvin S. Williams during annual Class Night activities held prior to the awarding of diplomas on May 31.

In addition, he was the recipient of a Cadet Officer Commission as a first lieutenant with the Academy's Air Force Junior ROTC program.

While at Randolph-Macon, he served as Sophomore Class treasurer, Junior Class secretary, and commander of the Color Guard. He participated in junior varsity football, basketball, and baseball, and was a member of the Yellow Jacket Monogram Club.

His other memberships included the Ski Club, Latin Club, Bicycle Club, "Sabre" school newspaper staff, and the R-MA Explorer Post chapter. During his senior year, he held the position of Head Waiter in the school dining hall. Randolph-Macon's Baccalaureate - Commencement Service featured the address of retired Virginia Circuit retired Virginia Circuit Court Judge Elliott D. Marshall, a 1922 alumnus of the academy and a trustee since 1953.

Letter To Editor Of The Herald

To The Editor: Some recent events have shown the wisdom of North Carolinians in rejecting the Equal Rights Amendment. Most of the candidates for Governor and Lt. Governor have voiced support for the ERA amendment.

One candidate for Lt. Governor, Representative John Jordan, voted against this amendment when it came before the 1975 General Assembly.

ERA would take away from women many of the rights they now enjoy, and it is for this reason that probably a majority of women themselves oppose this amendment.

John Jordan, son of the late B. Everett Jordan and Democrat candidate for Lt. Governor, deserves our thanks for voting against ERA. The voters should seek out the positions of all the candidates on this issue.
