Mrs. Robert Edgar Long, Jr.

Nuptial Vows Exchanged

Miss Kathryn Patterson Scott and Mr. Robert Edgar Long, Jr., were married on June 5 in St. Francis Episcopal Church in Greensboro. Rev. Roland M. Jones officiated.

Mr. Long is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Long, Sr. of Burlington.

The couple will live in Chapel Hill.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Prioleau Scott of Greensboro and the granddaughter of Mrs. Lester Archibald Patterson of Edenton and Mrs. William deRosset Scott of Burlington.

SUMMER BRIDE-ELECT Mr. and Mrs. Nathan David Dail announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Helen, to Mr. William Gibson Williams of Fayetteville. An early Summer wedding is planned.

Vacation Bible School Begins

On Monday

Dr. Robert E. Gray, pastor of Edenton Baptist Church, will use as his sermon subject "Ambassadors for Christ" at the 11 o'clock Sunday morning service. Scripture will be taken from II Corinthians 5:16-21.

The Sanctuary Choir will render the anthem "Grace So Amazing" during the morning worship. Message in song will be presented by a ladies trio composed of Mrs. John Smith, Mrs. Paul Stearns, and Mrs. Russell Wheeler, singing "God Did A Wonderful Thing for Me." A special Marriage Renewal Ceremony will be held at the evening worship.

Vacation Bible School will begin Monday at the church. Sessions for three-year-olds through 6th graders, will be held each day beginning Monday, June 14, through Friday, June 18, from 8:30 A.M. to 11:30 A.M. Mrs. Robert Gray is director of the morning school.

For youth, 7th through 12th grades including graduates, eight evening sessions will be held - Monday, June 14, through Thursday, June 17, and Monday, June 21, through Thursday, June 24 -- beginning nightly at 7 o'clock. Director of the evening school is Miss Nelle Manning.

Martin Tech

Awards 68

With Diplomas

Sixty-eight graduates received diplomas from Martin Technical Institute on May 28 during the eighth commencement exercises.

Among those graduating was Velda Rae Stallings, in business administration.

The commencement speaker was James H. McBrayer of Williamston, district manager of Virginia Electric and Power Company.

Presiding over commencement exercises was Dr. Joseph B. Carter, president of the institute. Presenting the graduates was Donald R. Stout, chairman of the MTI Board of Trustees.

Club Closes

Until Fall

With summer breezes and leisure hours ahead the Edenton Woman's Club president, Mrs. Jack Leary, adjourned their last meeting, held June 2, until Fall routine beckons the group into action again in September.

A delightful luncheon was served in the home of Mrs. J. P. Timberlake, III. The guest speaker was Dottie Lilliebridge who answered questions about Edenton's new FM radio station (100.1 on your dial) which is scheduled to begin broadcasting on June 15.

Many club projects were discussed with specific emphasis on playground equipment and other aid to the schools. Another topic of concern, due to the growing membership, seemed to center around the need for a permanent building with kitchen facilities that could accommodate luncheon meetings and also be available for other club and community activities.

GARNERS HONORS Stanley Hare from Chowan County won academic honors at Campbell College in the spring semester.

Immanuel School Holds Awards Day

On Friday the Immanuel Christian School held its annual awards banquet. Students and parents gathered at the Merry Hill community building to enjoy the meal and to hear the guest speaker for the evening.

Rev. D. M. Hardison, President of Atlantic Baptist Bible College, Norfolk, Va. and pastor of Tidewater Baptist Temple, also of Norfolk, was the featured speaker. Mr. Hardison used as his text II Cor. Chapter 4 and 5 to speak on Scriptural motivations for service. Various awards recognizing student achievement were presented by Rev. Ashby Browder, principal and Robert Reed, supervisor.

Trophies were presented for Highest Pace Average to Anthony Evans, elementary; and Andrew Rouse-high school. Those winning trophies for Most Paces Completed were Joey Charbonneau - elementary and Diane Rollins-high school. The Supervisor's Award for academic achievement was presented to Diane Rollins. The Pastor's Award for Christian Leadership was awarded to Andrew Rouse. The students planned and presented a varied program of religious and patriotic skits, songs, poems and a puppet show.

METHODIST TOPIC "Going On" is the topic chosen by Rev. E. L. Earnhardt for the 11 A.M. service Sunday at Edenton United Methodist Church. His texts are: Hebrews 5: 12-14; and 6: 1-11.
