Stanton-Swindell Vows Solemnized

Miss Suzanne Elizabeth Stanton and W. Larry Swindell were united in marriage Saturday at 2 P.M. in the First United Methodist Church in Hertford. Officiating were the Rev. Minton T. Mann and Father Joseph J. Klaus.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. William E. Stanton of Arlington, Va. and Mr. and Mrs. Marion S. Swindell of Hertford.

Music for the service was furnished by Mrs. William R. McDuffie, organist, and Robert McDuffie, violinist, aunt and cousin of the groom of Macon, Georgia.

The bride, escorted by her father and given in marriage by her parents, wore a full length gown of silk organza and imported Peau-d'ange lace. Her dress was fashioned with a lace empire bodice, a portrait neckline edged with delicate blossoms of Venise lace and Bishop sleeves with wide lace cuffs. Her chapel length train featured a deep "V" effect of Peau-de-ange lace which fell into a border of lace completely encircling the hemline of her flowing skirt and chapel train. She wore a fingertip length mantilla edged with matching lace and carried a nosegay of white, daisies, blue carnations and baby's breath. Her only ornament was a pendant belonging to her paternal grandmother.

Attending her sister as matron of honor was Mrs. Tom Holland of Marion, Indiana. She wore a gown of blue dotted swiss fashioned with a ruffled V neckline and empire waist which was accented with blue satin ribbon forming a bow with streamers falling to the ruffled hemline. She carried a nosegay of pink, blue and yellow daisies.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Ronnie M. Barnard of Suffolk, Va. and Miss Nancy Elizabeth Swindell of Hertford, sisters of the groom, Mrs. William Barber of Plymouth and Mrs. Rod Wetherell of Woodbridge, Va. Their gowns and nosegays were identical to that of the honor attendant.

Junior bridesmaid, Miss Tracy Holland, and flower girl, Miss Jennifer Holland, nieces of the bride of Marion, Indiana, wore dresses fashioned like those of the bridesmaids and carried baskets of pink, blue and yellow daisies.

Mr. Swindell served as best man for his son. Greensmen were Michael Stanton, brother of the bride of Hilton Head Island, S. C., Ronnie M. Barnard, brother-in-law of the groom of Suffolk, Va., Sp-4 John H. Thigpen, III, of Ft. Bragg, N. C. and Michael Bunch of Cary, N. C.

Mistresses of ceremonies were Mrs. Henry Sienkiewicz of Greensboro and Mrs. D. F. Reed, Jr. of Hertford.

The bride's mother chose a floor length gown of pink chiffon fashioned with an empire bodice, a V neckline and long sleeves. She wore matching accessories and a pink cymbidium orchid corsage.

The groom's mother wore a full length gown of mint green quiana fashioned with a mandarin collar, full length chiffon sleeves and a self belt. She wore matching accessories and a cymbidium orchid corsage.

Mrs. J. H. Thigpen, grandmother of the groom, of Windsor, wore a dress of pink crepe polyester accented with English lace and full length chiffon sleeves. She wore white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Following a reception given by the bride's parents in the social hall of the church, the couple left for a wedding trip to Niagara Falls, New York. Upon their return they will make their home in Edenton.

The bride, who is a teacher of social studies at Perquimans County High School, is a graduate of East Carolina University where she is now doing her graduate work.

The groom is a graduate of the College of the Albemarle and the Cincinnati College of Mortuary Science. A licensed embalmer and funeral director, he is associated with his father in Swindell-Bass Funeral Home in Edenton and Swindell Funeral Home in Hertford.
