

Lecturer Appearing Here

GREENVILLE, S.C.— Frank Garlock, internationally known authority on music and how it affects people, will conduct a "Symphony of Life Seminar" at Immanuel Baptist Church, in Edenton, July 28-30 at 7:30 o'clock each night. Dr. Garlock is an extension staff lecturer for Bob Jones University here.

According to Dr. Garlock this seminar is designed to provide Christians with an understanding of the Biblical principles of music and their application to Christian living. "A symphony is a growing together of varied sounds, and the Symphony of Life Seminar will bring together the varied aspects of Christian living and show how they converge in the music of any group of people," says Dr. Garlock.

Titles of messages by Dr. Garlock will include "You're Putting Me On," "The Music Is the Message," "Pop Goes the Music," "A New Song," "Understanding Teen Problems," and "The Rock of Ages Versus the Age of Rock."

He will answer such thought-provoking questions as, "Does the Bible have absolute standards for the music of a Christian?" "Is preference for a particular style of music just a matter of personal taste?" "Why do teenagers like rock?" and "Can contemporary music be used to communicate the Gospel?"

Dr. Garlock is especially well known for his lectures on "The Dangers of Rock Music" which have been given as often as 16 times in one week and to crowds in excess of 5,000 with as many as 400 decisions for Christ made in a single service. He has lectured extensively throughout the United States and in several foreign countries.

Rev. Ashby Browder gives a cordial welcome to the public to attend.

Dr. Frank Garlock
