Sermon Topic Announced

Dr. Robert E. Gray, pastor of Edenton Baptist Church, has selected as his sermon topic, "The Gospel in Jesus", for the 11 o'clock service on Sunday morning. Scriptural text will be Romans 1:16, 17.

WEDDING SATURDAY—Mr. and Mrs. James Monds announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Arlene, to Mr. Lynn Dickens. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dickens. The wedding will take place November 27 at 3 P.M. in Center Hill Baptist Church. Friends and relatives are invited to attend.

Special Service

Thursday Morning
On Thursday morning at 8:30 A.M., there will be a service of worship, praise, and thanksgiving to God at the Edenton Baptist Church. Along with special music, there will be personal testimonies, and a brief message by the pastor, Dr. Robert E. Gray. You are invited to attend.

Special music at the morning service will include a solo, "The Choice Is Mine", by J. R. Baxley, and the anthem, "For All Men Everywhere", by the Sanctuary Choir.

The ordinances of the Lord's Supper will be observed at the 7:30 evening worship.

Miss Lane Sets Wedding In December

Mr. Forrest Ervin Lane of Tyner announces the engagement of his daughter, Sheila Seda, to Mr. Gene A. Roberson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alphonso E. Roberson, also of Tyner.

The wedding will take place at 4 P.M. on December 19 in Center Hill Baptist Church. Friends and relatives are invited to attend.

Miss Spruill is a 1973 graduate of Virginia Polytechnic Institution and State University where she received a master science degree in foods and nutrition.

Miss Spruill is planning

CARD OF THANKS
Words are inadequate to express the gratitude I feel towards Dr. Hardin and the staff at Chowan Hospital for the care given me while I was a patient there. My thanks also goes to everyone for the many acts of kindness rendered towards me. Each prayer, visit, card and telephone call will always be treasured.

Mrs. Carroll Forehand

Mr. Forehand Claims Bride

Miss Brenda Miller and Mr. Carroll Forehand were united in marriage at 4 P. M. November 6 at Angler's Cove. Officiating was Rev. Ron Richardson of Merry Hill.

The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Paul Miller of Bertie County. Her husband is the son of Mr. William Forehand, Route 3, Edenton, and the late Mrs. Louise Forehand.

A program of wedding music was provided by Mrs. Elvis Lee. Mrs. Betty Jean Hollowell was soloist.

The private dining room was decorated with two spiral candelabras, green potted plants with a large arrangement of flowers with mixed white and green.

The bride was given in marriage by Mr. Henry Carney. She wore a floor length formal gown of mint green over off white. It had fitted sleeves with an empire waistline. Her veil was made of the same off-white lace as her gown. She carried a nosegay of white carnation and white pom poms.

Mrs. Debbie Goodwin was matron of honor.

Mr. Forehand served as his son's best man.

Ushers were Jimmy White and Thomas Evans, both of Edenton.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at Angler's Cove.

Mrs. Gail Smith of Windsor and Mrs. Sam Evans of Edenton served the cake and punch.

The couple honeymooned in New Orleans and now reside in Edenton.

Couple Marks 50th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Golden are celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary November 24.

Mr. Golden retired in May, 1970, from F. I. DuPont & Company, a Wall Street Brokerage firm and moved to Cape Colony. In his earlier years he played baseball in the Wall Street League and also with the Pavillion Ball Club on Staten Island, N. Y.

The Goldenes are the parents of one daughter and they have eight grandchildren.

They are members of Chowan Golf & Country Club.
