Mrs. Charlie Alexander

Nuptial Vows Spoken

On Sunday afternoon, November 21, Miss Janet Elaine Britton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Junius Britton, became the bride of Mr. Charlie Alexander, son of Mr. and Mrs. Casper Alexander.

The candlelight ceremony took place at 3 P.M. in the Edenton Baptist Church with Dr. Robert Gray officiating. The church was decorated in palms with bouquets of mums, fugi mums and pompons.

Fred Ashley, Jr., was soloist accompanied by Mrs. Mary Smith at the organ.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father. Her gown was white sheer ganza trimmed with peau d'ange and venise lace with a fitted bodice featuring a sheer scalloped yoke, high neckline and full bishop sleeves embellished with peau d'ange appliques and venise lace. The full skirt with attached chapel train was embellished with peau d'ange appliques and venise lace at the hemline.

Her veil featured a fitted cap and chapel length silk illusion edged with venise lace. The bride carried a dainty colonial nosegay of white sweetheart roses and white pompons, with long streamers of white pico ribbon.

The groom had as his best man Mr. William Spruill of Edenton.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Ellen Ludford of Elizabeth City.

The bridesmaids were: Mrs. Jimmy Forehand, Mrs. Jeff Knox and Miss Bonita Perry.

Ushers for the wedding were: Messrs. Jerry Boucher, Charles Britton and Mike McArthur.

The bride's mother wore a gown of forest green velvet with matching accessories. She carried a mint green orchid on top of her purse.

Mrs. Alexander wore a gown of Christmas green velvet with matching accessories. Her corsage was a mint green orchid.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the church Fellowship Hall. The red and white theme of the wedding was carried out in the decoration.

After the reception the couple left on a wedding trip to Williamsburg. For her going away outfit the bride selected a navy blue three piece pants suit off-set by a red and white blouse. She wore a corsage of white carnations.

After rehearsal on Saturday night a party was given at the home of the bride.

The couple will make their home at 20 Hawthorne Road.

'Wrath Of God'

Is Sermon Topic

At Baptist Church

Dr. Robert E. Gray, pastor of Edenton Baptist Church, has selected "The Wrath of God" as his subject at the 11 o'clock worship service on Sunday morning. Scriptural text will be Romans 1:18-32.

Special music will be presented by the Sanctuary Choir as they render the "Carol of Christmas."

At the 7:30 worship, Brenda Zeigler and Pam Doyle will present a program entitled "Through the Eyes of a Journeyman: Missions in Brazil." Zeigler and Doyle served as journeymen in Brazil from 1972 to 1974.

Holiday

Activities

Planned

Center Hill Extension Homemakers Club met last Tuesday night at the Center Hill Community Building. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. H. T. Hollowell. "The Lord is My Pacesetter" was used as her devotion and was followed by prayer.

Mrs. Ann Boyce was guest of the club and she brought the lesson on "As We Learn, We Grow". In her talk she stressed the needs and objectives of Extension Homemaker Club members and the opportunities which are there such as scholarships which are available for the youth, if we will just pass the word along. She also helped us become better acquainted with the Organizational Chart of extension clubs.

Plans were made for the annual Christmas Party which will be at a date to be announced later.

Finals plans were made and committees named for the Old Fashioned Christmas which will be an all day affair on December 8 and will be a county-wide affair, with members of other clubs exhibiting articles for sale or show.

The Center Hill Extension Club extends an invitation to all to come and share in this Old Fashioned Christmas. Lunch will be served and there will be a table of desserts for sale.

Methodist Youth

To Hold Service

A Youth Service will be conducted Sunday night at Edenton United Methodist Church. The service begins at 7:30 o'clock.

At the 11 A. M. worship service, Rev. E. L. Earnhardt has chosen "The Innkeeper" as his topic. His text is Luke 2:7.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late Richard A. Welch wishes to acknowledge with grateful appreciation your kind expressions of sympathy during the loss of their loved one. May God Bless each of you. Thank you.
