Mrs. Steven Martin Kane

Sewell-Kane Vows Said

An impressive ceremony united in marriage Miss Marguerite Warden Sewell and Mr. Steven Martin Kane at the Cabarrus Country Club on August 20, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Dr. Loy Witherspoon performed the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson Davis Sewell of Charlotte and the granddaughter of Mrs. Henry Caleb Goodwin, Edenton.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Edward Kane of Charlotte and the grandson of Mrs. Samuel Kane of Brookline, Mass. and Mrs. Myron Stewart, Miami Beach, Fla. Max R. Shoaf presented a program of nuptial music. Mrs. James Funderburk, was vocalist.

Miss Sewell was given in marriage by her father. Her bridal gown of white peau d'ange was fashioned with a Victorian neckline, a sheer yoke and an empire bodice appliqued with Venice lace which encircled the full skirt and chapel train. Her picture hat was covered with peau d'ange and Venice lace. The fingertip veil was imported illusion. She carried an heirloom Bible covered in ivory and silver.

The groom's mother, grandmother, and great-aunt carried this Bible in their weddings. Miss Mary Davis Sewell of Charlotte was her sister's maid of honor.

Miss Virginia Des Champs Blackford of Charlotte was the bridesmaid.

Mr. Michael Kane of Charlotte served his brother as best man.

Ushers were Jerry Dan Frye and Henderson Lee Thomas, III, both of Charlotte. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Sewell chose an aqua mist Qiana gown with a corsage of phalenopsis orchids.

The bridegroom's mother wore a gown of apricot chiffon with phalenopsis orchids.

The bride is a graduate of Myers Park High School and St. Mary's Junior College in Raleigh. She attended the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill where she was the most outstanding ADPi pledge. She is a graduate of the Katherine Gibbs School in New York and is employed by Hixson Utility District in Chattanooga, Tennessee. She made her debut in 1971 with the Charlotte Guild and was a member of the Charlotte Spinster's Club.

Mr. Kane attended Charlotte Country Day School and graduated from Westminster School in Connecticut. He is a graduate of Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore. He is general manager of Multi-Color Processors Inc., in Lafayette, Ga.

Following the family wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson Davis Sewell honored the couple with a reception in the Club dining room. Decorations were carried throughout in compliment to flowers carried by the attendants.

Yellow undercloths covered with nylon skirting edged with Venice lace, Sonya roses, strawflowers and marguerite daisies, forming a background for the delicious cocktail buffet. Music for dancing by Jimmie Stack of Charlotte.

After a wedding trip to Bermuda, the couple will reside in Chattanooga.

Miss White Will Marry In September
