Rock-A-Thon Nets $450

A number of Youth from Edenton Baptist Church participated in a Rock-A-

Thon, last Saturday, for the American Cancer Society and exceeded their $400 goal by raising $450 through contributions and pledges.

The young participants were joined in the event by Dr. Robert E. Gray, pastor of Edenton Baptist Church, Morris Small, Jr., manager of Northside branch of Bank of North Carolina, and Bob Moore, executive director of Edenton Chamber of Commerce.

"We are most appreciative of Bill Norvell of Quinn Furniture Co. for allowing us to use his storefront for this event and also of Terry Jones and Terry Williams of WCDJ radio, who broadcast live from the location", said Denise Phthisic, president of the Edenton Baptist Youth Council.

Miss Phthisic along with Tommy Long and Marion Zeigler, minister of Youth, coordinated the Rock-A-Thon.

Events Slated In December

The month of December is special in North Carolina. Up in the mountains skiers are already at it.

Christmas at Old Salem in Winston-Salem is a look into the past. The Candle Teas, sponsored by the Women's Fellowship of Home Moravian Church will be held at the Single Brothers House December 1, 2, 3, and 8, 9, 10 from 2 P.M. to 9 P.M. Christmas Eve lovefeasts are scheduled at Home Moravian Church at 11 A.M. and 2:30 P.M. for children and 5 and 7:45 for adults.

"Salem Christmas 1800" at Old Salem is the sights and sounds of the Moravian congregation town of Salem in 1800. The celebration will be December 13 from 4 to 6 P.M. and 7 to 9 P.M. Tickets are limited.

A special Christmas outing is planned at Tryon Palace in New Bern on December 18. Gardens will be open free to the public, and hot cider and cookies will be served.

The lighting of the "world's largest living Christmas tree" at Wilmington will be December 9. A stately live oak, botanists place its age at about 400 years.

A major national arts and crafts show, Carolina Craftsmen's Christmas Classic '77, featuring exhibits and demonstrations from award-winning artists and craftsmen from all over the country, will be held December 10-11 in Charlotte.

A special Christmas Tour of Homes is scheduled December 10-11 in Garner. Christmas in the Smokies will be celebrated December 21-26 at Fontana Village Resort.

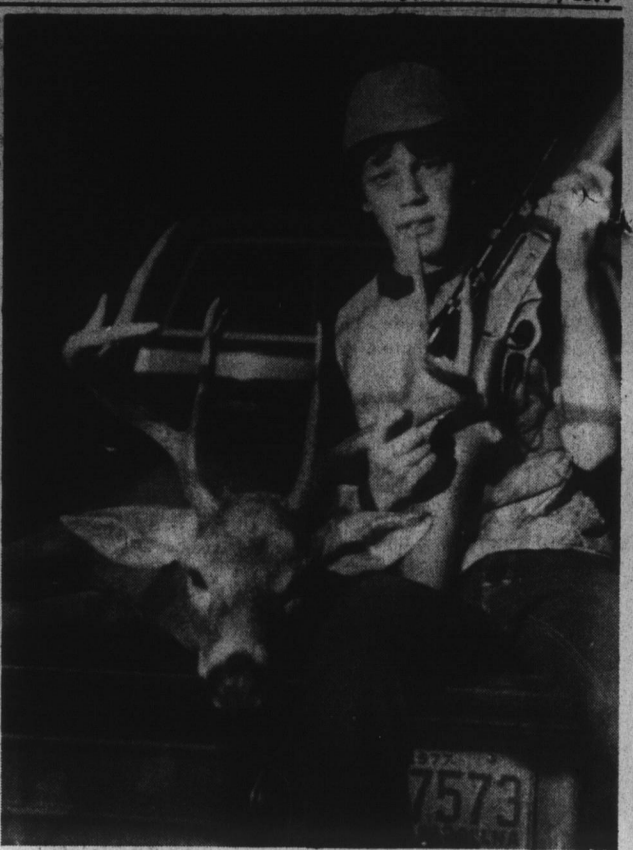

Down on the Outer Banks at Kill Devil Hills the First Flight Society will hold their annual celebration of the Wright Brothers first flight on December 17.

The Charlotte Observer will sponsor a 26-mile, 385-yard marathon run through the streets of Charlotte on the 17th.

Christmas is a special time in North Carolina. And, that day when the fat gentleman from the North Pole makes his visit is always a special day.
