Livestock Show Winners

(This news article is supplement to the one appearing in Chowan Herald last week).

Jill Copeland won the fitting and showmanship demonstration for steers at Chowan Junior Livestock Show held last week. Second place winner in this contest was Bill Jordan; third place, Debbie Jordan; fourth place, Harriett Winslow; fifth place, David Jordan and sixth place, Andy Hare.

In the fitting and showmanship contest for hogs, the winner of the trophy was Donalton White. Second place winner was Gibson Rich; third place, Anna Goodwin; and fourth place, Mary Rich.

The judge of the contest, Dr. Bob Jones, commented after the fitting and showmanship contest was over, "The boys and girls did the best job I believe I have ever seen. They were excellent."

In the pen of three contest third place winner was Joseph Goodwin; fourth place, Jeff Toppin; fifth, Anna Goodwin; sixth Milt Tynch; seventh, Ivey Ward; eighth, Debbie Ward; ninth, Karen Ward; tenth, Randy Lowe and eleventh, Debbie Jordan.

In the competition for best record books, Debbie Jordan won the trophy for her first place steer book. Debbie also won this honor in 1977. Other project book winners were Anna Goodwin, 2nd place; Joseph Goodwin, third place and Debbie Jordan (hogs) fourth place.

Murray Goodwin, 4-H Coordinator said "In some ways this was the best Livestock Show we have ever had. Our champion individual hog sold for the most ($3.40 per lb.) of any animal we have ever had in the Chowan County sale. We had the most boys and girls (31) in the show ever. Bob Jones said we had excellent fitting showmanship contests for hogs.

"We want to thank everyone who had something to do with making the show and sale the success that it was, Buyers, Trophy Donors, Advertisers in program, Auctioneer and Ruritan members."

The remainder of sale was as follows:

Third place individual hog shown by Wayne Forehand and bought by Baker Hog Market at $1.05 per lb.; Third place steer, Gary Copeland bought by Weyerhaeuser at $7.76 per lb.; Third place pen, Joseph Goodwin, bought by Hobbs Implement at $.86 per lb.; Fourth place steer, Bob Jordan, bought by Hobbs, Implement at $.75 per lb.; Fifth place steer, David Jordan, bought by Byrum Implement Co. at $.82 per lb.; Sixth place steer, Debbie Jordan, bought by Home Feed & Fertilizer at $.82; Seventh place steer, Wally Byrum, bought by Edenton Tractor at $.76 per lb.; Eighth place steer, Bryant Byrum, bought by Byrum Implement at $.70 per lb.; Ninth Place Steer, Harriett Winslow, bought by Hobbs Implement at $.75 per lb.; Tenth place Steer, Andy Hare, bought by Byrum Implement at $.70 per lb. and Fourth place individual hog, Donalton White, bought by Creywood Oil at $.75 per pound.
