Illness Claims Mrs. Overman

Mrs. Martha Twiddy Overman, 118 Jackson Street, died Monday in Chowan Hospital following an extended illness. She was 76.

Mrs. Overman was a native of Tyrrell County. She was the daughter of the late James T. and Lovenia Johnson Twiddy and the widow of Oscar P. Overman.

She was retired from Edenton Cotton Mill. Surviving is a daughter, Mrs. Doris Twiddy of Edenton; a brother, John Twiddy of Edenton; a sister, Mrs. Ella Mitchell of Edenton; two grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.

She was a member of First Christian Church.

Funeral services were held at 4 P.M. Wednesday in Williford-Barham Funeral Chapel with Rev. E. C. Alexander and Rev. Preston Cayton. Burial was in Beaver Hill Cemetery.

Recognized

An Appreciation Service for Mrs. M. B. Taylor, in recognition of 30 years of service as home economics extension agent in Perquimans County, will be held June 30 at Perquimans County High School Auditorium, Hertford at 3 P.M.

A reception will follow in the school gymnasium. The public is invited to attend.

NEW LIFE SINGERS — The New Life Singers from Daniel's Chappell Free Will Baptist Church will be at the Cape Colony Free Will Baptist Church Saturday. The program starts at 7 P.M. The public is invited to attend.

Recent Graduate

Stacy Neal Brown, son of Jack and Delories Brown, was a recent graduate of Forest Glen High School, Suffolk, Va. He was awarded a Good Citizenship medal in recognition of his participation in school activities and his cooperativeness with teachers and peers.

Brown's maternal grandmother is Hilda C. Layton of Edenton, and his paternal grandmother is Della Brown of Merry Hill. He plans to attend Maddison College, Harrisonburg, Va., and major in physical education.

Awards Banquet Is Held

The annual Chowan Academy awards banquet was held May 24 at the American Legion Building. The banquet, which included a steak dinner and the presentation of both academic and sports awards, was sponsored by the Parent-Teacher Organization.

Virginia Evans was presented the Jackie Evans and W. E. Smith awards while Mark Noneman was named Most Outstanding Senior.

The DAR Award went to Edith Cowper, a junior. In the field of athletics, Randy Tetterton won the Best All Around Award for boys while Erica Lee won the award presented the girls. The "Dougie" Noneman Award, which goes to the most outstanding athlete in the fourth, fifth and sixth grades went to Michael Byrum. Ralph Hollowell won the Adrian J. Smith Award which is presented to the most outstanding senior athlete.

Special Classes
 Coach Jim Addison will be in charge of athletic conditioning and training classes to be conducted at Holmes High School this summer. The classes are available to students who participate in athletic programs on the junior and senior high school levels.

Registration for the classes are this week at Homes gymnasium from 8 A.M. to 12 noon and 1 P.M. to 4 P.M. Coach Addison said it is required that participants must have had a medical examination and must have school or family insurance. The classes are designed to increase overall muscular strength and running speed. There is no charge to attend and all athletes in Edenton and Chowan County are encouraged to participate.
