

Reflections From The Bandon Notebook

By Maggie B.

Hi, Neighbors, do you realize that time is quickly slipping by? Here it is August already and some of our colleges will be starting classes again! Our granddaughter will be going back to James Madison University to resume studies this month! Let's pay a salute to August:

A time to relish summer before fall nips the air,
The time to take the youngsters to the zoo or to a fair,
A time to see the bounty in the harvest of our land
And sense the love and kindness in these gifts from God's great hand.

A time to feel the showers and count the stars at night,
Even spin a dream or two beneath the full moon's light,
A time to catch the beauty of a sunny, cloudless sky,
Enjoy the gifts of August; never let them pass you by."

Lois Anne Williams

he learns to feel guilty; if he lives with tolerance, he learns to be patient; if he lives with encouragement, he learns confidence; if he lives with praise, he learns to appreciate; if he lives with fairness, he learns justice; if he lives with security, he learns to have faith; if he lives with approval, he learns to like himself; and if a child lives with acceptance and friendship, he learns to find love in the world.

My good friend, Rev. Damon Wyatt, pointed this out to me last week as we were watching the behavior of several children in a group. In my opinion, it would be well for all of us to remember, not only during this month of August, but every month in the year.

This lovely Lord's Day was just right for God's people to gather in His House for a spiritual refueling. Those assembled at Bandon Chapel for Sunday School were cheerfully welcomed by Asst. Supt. Meredith Barden. After a report of those on our Prayer List, he announced that Prayer Meeting will be Tuesday at 7 P.M. in Fellowship Hall with B. Kent Rowley leading the discussion. Choir practice follows at 8 P.M.

The BWG meets Thursday from 10 A.M. to 3 P.M. The ladies are busily who have turned from God's way renew their devotion to the Lord.

At our Worship Service, Mrs. Maggie Clark sang a solo, without accompaniment, entitled "People to People". A hush fell over the congregation. Her lovely voice rang out soft and clear, enunciating the inspiring words of the song which emphasized that people should tell others about the love of Christ for all of us.

"The doors to this church are as wide as the gates of Heaven and in Christ's name, I bid you welcome", stated Dr. W. J. B. Livingston as he welcomed the large group gathered for our Worship Service. His powerful morning message was "Unseen Defenders", 2 Kings 6:13-18, with emphasis on vs. 16 & 17. When Elisha was sought by the king of Syria, his servant went out early in the morning and saw the Syrian forces surrounding them. Alarmed, he went in to tell Elisha, who said "those that are with us are greater than those that are against us", then, he prayed that the Lord would open his servant's eyes so that he might see. The Lord did, and the servant saw that the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha. God was protecting him.

Christians - people who believe in the Lord, Jesus Christ, have something better than any insurance we can purchase - we have legions of angels we can call to our aid. The Bible says that there are thousands upon thousands of them around us.

When Daniel was thrown into the lion's den, God sent His angels to shut the lions' mouths. When you are confronted with "lions", ask God to come and close the mouth of these lions.

Angelic beings are continually ministering to people in many ways in these present days. Many seeming coincidences are really angels on the job. Paul said "everyone of them are sent forth of God to minister to those who shall be heirs of salvation (Heb.

1:14). Ps. 34:7 says "the angel of the Lord encampeth round about them that fear Him, and delivereth them." Make sure you are "heirs of salvation" by making Jesus Christ "first" in your life - then, let us listen to the angels. Ask God to send His angels to minister to us in time of need. He will hear you.

At the Congregational Meeting following the Worship Service, Ron Ellinwood, Mary Campbell and Hilda Wisner were chosen to work with Deacons Tom Dilday and Dave Lapham as a Nominating Committee. They will bring in a slate of officers to fill all offices in the Church to be voted on in September.

A Concert by the Berea Youth Choir of Chesapeake, Va., under the direction of Mrs. Judy Waters, will be held at Bandon Chapel on August 12th, starting at 3:30 P.M. Hearing these young people sing is a treat you owe yourself. They are a real inspiration! Everyone is welcome.

The Board of Deacons will meet on Saturday at 9:30 A.M. The congregation is invited to attend.

The BCWG ladies will have a picnic on Saturday at 6:30 P.M. to honor their husbands. It will be held on the grounds of the Arrowhead Beach & Boat Club. All ladies and their husbands are urged to attend and enjoy the good food, fun and fellowship.

A hearty welcome is extended to our first timers this week: Mrs. Gail Fezell of Roanoke, Va. and Miss Lisa Cummings of Rocky Mount, niece of Louise Ruff. We hope you enjoyed our services and will return soon.

The POA Board Meeting will be held Saturday at 1 P.M. in the Arrowhead Beach Clubhouse. All property owners are invited to attend and see your Board in action. Don't get information second hand - come out and see for yourself what is being done, what is being planned, etc. If you have ideas for the improvement of our community, they will be appreciated by the Board.

We were informed that the Jaycettes assisted the Joycees with the bloodmobile July 23, the softball tournaments July 28 and July 29, and the teenage dance July 28.

Linda Renner reported on the Jaycette cookout and dance which was held July 14. Gail Forehand told us that some of the Jaycettes from Hertford attended our dance too.

New handbooks were given to each Jaycette to be used for this year. We thanked Claire Mills and Gayle Layton for doing such a fine job.

Participating In Program

The Chowan County Involvement Council is participating in a reimbursement grant program through the Governor's Office of Citizen Affairs to develop information and Referral services for the county. The amount of the grant is $2,500.

This grant will facilitate the effective operation of the entire Involvement Council concept. Started in May, 1978, at the urging of Gov. James B. Hunt, Jr., and administered on the state level by the Governor's Office of Citizen Affairs, the Involvement Councils are designed to serve as a local clearinghouse where citizens can go to get help as well as to give help.

Involvement Councils have several distinct functions. They are designated by county commissioners to locate community services and try to link volunteers with area projects they might be interested in. They support existing services by added exposure, and attempt to bring together various groups around common concerns.

In addition, many Involvement Councils encourage community programs in reading, crime prevention, and other areas. There are presently Involvement Councils in over 50 North Carolina counties.

Break-In Reported

Coastal Concrete Company had an unlawful entry Sunday night but nothing has been reported missing.

Sgt. Joe Norman of Edenton Police Department discovered at 10:33 P.M. that the glass in a door on the north end of the building had been broken out. After a search of the building was made by the plant manager nothing could be determined to be missing or out of place.

SSI Eligibility reviewed yearly:

People getting Supplemental Security Income (SSI) payments shouldn't feel they're being singled out for investigation when they're contacted during the year by Social Security representatives.

The SSI program makes monthly payments to people with little or no income and limited resources who are 65 and over or blind or disabled.

The law requires that eligibility for SSI and the amount of the monthly payments be redetermined at least once a year for everyone getting the payment.

The Social Security Administration gets in touch with people to get information about income, living arrangements, and other factors that might affect their SSI payments.

The Elizabeth City Social Security office is located at 111 Jordan Plaza next to Southgate Mall (phone 338-2161) and is open 9:00 to 4:30 weekdays.
