

Mr. Barger Claims Bride

Miss Rosa Jean Parrish became the bride of James Edwards Barger in a double ring ceremony August 5. The candlelit ceremony took place at 3 o'clock in Edenton Baptist Church.

Dr. Robert Gray of Newport News, Va., heard the vows.

The church was decorated in palms with bouquets of Fuji mums, spring fern glads and baby's breath.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cary Yates Parrish, Jr., Route 2, Edenton and the granddaughter of Mrs. Joe Harrell of the Bethel Community.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Edwards Barger, Route 3, Edenton.

Presenting a program of wedding music were Mrs. Robert Gray, pianist; Mrs. Larry Smith, organist; Dr. Robert Gray and Robert Gray, Jr., soloists; and Mr. David Copeland, trumpeter.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a long sleeved chiffon wedding gown featuring a sweetheart neckline. The bodice of vertical design of Venice lace. A daisy-like chain of lace bordered the gown.

She wore a picture hat covered in chiffon with lace matching her gown. It was bowed in the back with self streamers and lace edging. Jean carried a lace covered prayer book covered with a bouquet of silk flowers. The prayerbook was the one carried by her mother and sisters at their marriages. She wore a string of pearls given to her by her parents.

Mrs. Faye Clark of Virginia Beach, Va., and Miss Jane Parrish of Edenton, sisters of the bride, were her honor attendants.

The bridesmaids were: Mrs. Linda White of Edenton, sister of the bride; Mrs. Thresia Morgan of Sumter, S. C.; and Mrs. Rebecca Adams of Manteo, sisters of the groom; and Miss Meredith Anne Lide of Madison.

The groom's father was best man. Groomsmen were C. Y. Parrish, III, brother of the bride; David Jordan, cousin of the bride; Franklin Adams of Manteo, brother-in-law of the groom; Flynn Surratt and Richard Brabble of Edenton.

Miss Bonnie Lynn White, niece of the bride was flowergirl. Brian Dana Morgan, nephew of the groom, was ring bearer.

The mother of the bride wore a floor length blue chiffon gown. The groom's mother wore a yellow chiffon gown. Both mothers wore corsages of mixed flowers. The bride's grandmother wore a crepe floor length gown with a lace jacket. She wore an orchid corsage.

Mistresses of ceremonies were Mrs. Herbert Hollowell of Edenton and Mrs. William Lee of Norfolk, Va.

Following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a reception in the church fellowship hall. Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Parrish, Jr. greeted guests. Mrs. Sue Parrish presided over the guestbook. Jay Morgan and Bryant White served as Junior Groomsmen. Mrs. Lin Jordan, Miss Debbie Jordan, Mrs. Margaret Spruill and Miss Tanya Adams assisted at the reception.

The bride is a 1976 graduate of Chowan Academy and a 1978 graduate of Peace College. She is attending East Carolina University where she is majoring in home economics.

The groom is a 1974 graduate of John A. Holmes High School and is employed by the Sherwin Williams Co. in Greenville.

For her going away outfit, the bride chose a two-piece mauve dress. She wore an orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet.

After a wedding trip to Hawaii, the couple will make their home at 1201 2nd Street, Greenville.

Pineapple

Do you know why many recipes for gelatin desserts specify that the pineapple used be either canned or cooked? The raw pineapple and fresh-frozen variety contain an enzyme that prevents proper jelling.

Miss Hounshell, Mr. Spear Wed

Miss Elizabeth Anne Hounshell and Clyde William Spear, Jr., were married at 8 P.M. Saturday, in First Christian Church in Greenville.

Dr. Aldred Wallace, uncle of the bride from Bluefield, W. Va., performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles D. Hounshell of Greensboro. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Clyde W. Spear, Sr., of Edenton.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of peau de sole and organza featuring a scooped neckline and apron front. The peau de sole bodice was trimmed in Venice lace and accented by a filled waistline, full skirt, long organza sleeves ending in a lace ruffle and sweep train.

The cathedral length veil was bordered in lace and attached to a lace bow. She carried an arm bouquet of yellow roses tied with yellow satin ribbons.

Debera Johnson of Fayetteville was honor attendant...

The mother of the bride wore a cream satin floor length dress with gold, green, brown, and cream print organza bodice and skirt over it. It had long sleeves and a scoop neckline. She wore a white orchid presented by bridegroom.

The mother of the bridegroom wore a green floor length dress with a perm-a-press pleat skirt and cape. She also wore a white orchid corsage.

Bridesmaids included Rosalind Castillo of Washington, D. C.; Katherine Moore, Birmingham, Ala.; Cindy Williams, niece of the bridegroom of Edenton; Cathy Hounshell, sister-in-law of the bride of Winston-Salem; and Kimberly Kennedy of Jacksonville.

The bridegroom's father served as best man. Ushers were Michael Spear of Edenton, brother of the bridegroom, Danny McLawhorn of Greenville, Ruffin Johnson of Fayetteville, Sam Stevens of Wilmington; Joseph Biddell of Louisville; Ron Jage of Chicago, Ill.; Jay Blake of Rocky Mount; and Douglas Hounshell, of Winston-Salem, brother of the bride.

Paula Bivens of Raleigh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Doug Bivens, served as flower girl. Justin Davenport, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Davenport of Plymouth, served as ringbearer.

Special guests of the ceremony were the sisters of the bridegroom, Laneta Williams, Phyllis Spear, and Jacqueline Spear; and Melvin Williams, bridegroom's brother-in-law, and Melvin Williams, Jr.

The church was decorated with two large flower arrangements of white and yellow carnations and daisies. Two spiral brass candleabras were placed on the sides of the altar and a brass semi-oval candleabra behind the altar. Brass candlesticks were also placed on the altar.

The couple knelt on facing knelling pads to receive communion. One loaf of bread was broken to serve the couple and wine was served in one silver chamblis.

A program of nuptial music was provided by Tom Hawley, organist. Mr. and Mrs. Jan Benschop of Raleigh were soloists.

Mr. Hawley also provided music at the church reception.

Following the ceremony, a formal reception was held in the church fellowship hall. A three tired cake with white frosting accented with

Chowan Academy of Dance Fall Registration

Registration for dance classes instructed by Marsha T. Gordon will be at the Shepard-Pruden Library on Monday, August 27th from 1:00 to 6:00 P.M. Classes will be offered in Creative Dance (pre-schoolers), Tap, two levels of jazz, five levels of Ballet, and a 10-week dance exercise class designed for women who need help in toning up unwanted fat.

A $10.00 registration fee per child is necessary for enrollment. A registration fee will not be charged for adult exercise class.

Classes will begin on September 6.

Location of classes will be announced on registration day.

Curriculum

Ballet - The traditional and flawless study of barre and centre exercises. Careful analysis and individual correction given at all levels.
Pointe - Only for more advanced girls when they have achieved technical proficiency.

Tap - To initiate rhythm. Recommended for children too young for jazz.

Jazz - Depends a great deal upon subtle use of hip, torso, head, shoulders, as well as the opposition of body parts. Demands strong discipline of the body.

"Dance is the only art form which disciplines the mind, while at the same time requiring the body to maintain a high level of physical fitness."
