Mrs. Hudgins To Address DAR Meeting

Mrs. Robert S. Hudgins, IV, State Regent of North Carolina Daughters of The American Revolution, will speak at a joint meeting of the Betsy Dowdy Chapter of Elizabeth City and the Edenton Tea Party Chapter on October 25 at 3 P.M. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. W. T. Jackson, Jr., 203 East Main Street, Elizabeth City.

Mrs. Hudgins will use as her subject, "A Tapestry of Service" which is the National Theme of NSDAR for the year 1979-80.

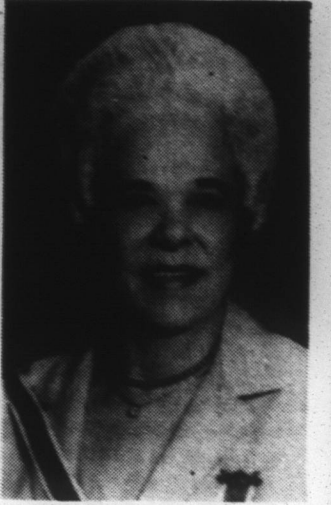

During the 33 years she has been a DAR member, Mrs. Hudgins has held various offices in local chapters, and has been appointed to two state and three national chairmanships. She was elected to one term as corresponding secretary, and is now regent of the organization consisting of 101 chapters with 6,227 members.

Her record of service to the Children of the American Revolution is also impressive. She has been senior president (advisor) to the state organization; and corresponding secretary, vice president and president of the national organization; and is honorary vice president of both state and local organizations for life.

Also, she has found time to serve as secretary-treasurer of her husband's business, is president of the auxiliary of professional engineers, has taught in the deaf schools of North Carolina and New Jersey, is an active member of the Meyers Park Presbyterian Church, member of the National Gavel Association, member of the International Platform Association, and is on the National Speaker's staff DAR by appointment of the President General.

BPW Week Oct. 21-26th

The Edenton Chapter of the Business and Professional Womens Clubs will celebrate National BPW Week, October 21-26. Theme for this year is "Together We Aspire; Together We Achieve!"

To kick off this event an inspirational breakfast will be held for all members on October 21, at 8 A.M. at Mrs. Boswell's Restaurant.

The regular monthly meeting will be held on October 25th. All past clubwomen of the year are urged to attend. At this time a new clubwoman of the year will be honored. Mrs. Julia Hassell of Edenton, a past State President, will be guest speaker.

All members are urged to come out and help celebrate their event.

BPW is opened to all young women who are in a business or professional career.

school year October 11. Deborah Lee Dunam of Edenton completed all required hours within the first six-week grading period.

Debbi has been a student at ECAS since May, 1978. She was not able to finish her course work prior to graduation last spring therefore her hours of study were carried over to the present school year.

As a senior, she lacked the required number of hours in social studies and English. By arranging her schedule to include two hours of social studies per day and one hour of English, as well as office practice, she was able to continue with her job at Hardee's and graduate.

The faculty and students of the school extend their congratulations to her.

It takes the fragrance of the average perfume four hours to fade.
