Jehovah's Witnesses To Meet

Jehovah's Witnesses in the Eastern North Carolina area will again use the Williamston High School for their semi-annual circuit assembly, March 1 and 2. John D. Busby, District Overseer will preside as he makes his rounds in serving assemblies in parts of Virginia and North Carolina in a continual travel routine. The theme of the 1980 series of assemblies is: "Please God by Our Obedience." Daniel E. Gaskin, Circuit

Overseer and spokesman for the group says: "The theme will be stressed in every program part by the use of more than 70 Bible verses to emphasize the importance of obedience to God's Word especially as it relates to the family - the role of the husband, wife and children and also in congregational matters." He said: "At all the meetings of Jehovah's Witnesses the children are not separated from their parents; all learn together, and this is a fine incentive for unity, Godly attitudes and Christian conduct." Sunday at 2 P.M., Mr. Busby will discuss the interest-arousing subject: "To Whom Does the Obedience of the People Belong?" He will identify that one and then show how he has delegated authority to others. Commenting on the importance of this subject Mr. Gaskin says: "There is much lawlessness in the world. People need to realize and appreciate the loving concern of the Heavenly Father in providing direction and guidance by means of his inspired Word." The meetings of Jehovah's Witnesses in the area will be cancelled to allow for attendance at Williamston. The talk on dedication and baptism will be given at 11:25 on Saturday, followed by water baptism. All concerned persons are welcome. Seats are free. No collection.

Mr. Peterson Elected To Board

OAK BROOK, Ill. — The Board of Directors of Waste Management, Inc., today elected as a new board member James R. Peterson, Executive Vice President and a director of R. J. Reynolds Industries, Inc.

Dean L. Buntrock, Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer, said Peterson will fulfill the unexpired term of the late Fred D. Stone and will be presented for election to a full one-year term at the company's annual meeting in May.

"Mr. Peterson's wide range of experience and record of accomplishment will make a valuable contribution to our Board of Directors," Buntrock said. Peterson has been Executive Vice President and a director of R. J. Reynolds Industries, Inc. since 1976. He formerly was President and a director of The Pillsbury Company, Minneapolis, Minnesota, with which he was associated for 24 years.

Peterson also is a member of the boards of directors of Avon Products, Inc., Shedd-Brown, Inc., and Dunn & Bradstreet Companies, Inc.
