

Film To Be Shown At Baptist Church

"No Longer Alone", winner of three prestigious film-industry awards, will be shown on Sunday, at Edenton Baptist Church. The showing, open to the public free of charge, is scheduled to begin at 7:30 P.M.

The film; a true story, takes a close look at a woman who was searching desperately for love and acceptance, but whose cries went unheard by those who surrounded her.

Originally released by World Wide Pictures in commercial theatres, the film is now one hour in length in preparation for its eventual presentation as a television special.

"No Longer Alone" traces the life of an English actress, Joan Winmill Brown. Though she skyrocketed to fame on the British stage, her life was marked by a frantic grasp for personal fulfillment and love. Tormented by a past she was unable to forget, she succumbed to a series of nervous breakdowns; and, at one point, attempted to take her own life.

In her ultimate moment of despair, Joan was invited by a "chance" phone call to attend a Billy Graham crusade. It was here that she first discovered her worth as an individual and began her long struggle to piece her shattered life back together.

Those who have followed Billy Graham's ministry will be interested to know that Dr. Graham appears in the film in some of the footage of his 1954 London Crusade, and also in the introduction and conclusion to the film, photographed recently for this special version.

According to William F. Brown, President of World Wide Pictures, "No Longer Alone" was presented with the "Award of Excellence" from the Film Advisory Board of Hollywood, as well as the "Angel" award from Religion in Media in America, as the outstanding religion film of the year. It also received the "Silver Halo Award" from the Southern California Motion Picture Council.

"No Longer Alone" was filmed in color on location in London, and stars Belinda Carroll, Wilfrid Hyde White, James Fox, Samantha Gates, and Gordon DeVol. Simon Williams, who has one of the leading roles in the BBC production, "Upstairs, Downstairs," also stars in the film. The title song was performed by the popular recording artist, B. J. Thomas.

Mr. Harris, 48, Taken In Death

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon for Lary Edison Harris, Sr., 48, 413 East Church Street. The services were held in Williford-Barham Funeral Chapel with Rev. E.C. Alexander officiating.

Full military honors were conducted. He was retired from the U.S. Air Force, after 22 years of service. Mr. Harris, an employee of Edenton Cotton Mill, died suddenly Saturday.

A native of Chowan County, he was born December 31, 1931, son of the late William T. and Ella Belch Harris. He was married to Mrs. Cora Rae Crumney Harris, who survives.

Also surviving is a son, Lary E. Harris, Jr., of Edenton; two daughters: Mrs. Wanda H. Lewis, of Windsor; and Miss Christina D. Harris of Edenton; three brothers: George, Thomas and Wilbert Harris, all of Edenton; three sisters: Mrs. Sadie Alexander and Mrs. Nan Perry, both of Edenton; and Mrs. Hazel Hunter of Mooresboro; and two grandchildren.

Mr. Harris was a member of First Christian Church.

Byrd Given Award

Thomas M. Byrd, N.C. State University associate professor and agricultural information specialist, was presented the Agricultural Communicators in Education (ACE) Professional Award at the organization's annual meeting at the University of California at Berkeley.

Cited as the highest award presented by ACE, it is given to a member "whose career exemplifies communications professional-ism," according to the tribute given by ACE president and Raleigh native Dr. Lloyd R. Bostian now of the University of Wisconsin.

Byrd, a native of Faison with two degrees from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, has been on the Department of Agricultural Information staff at NCSU since 1958. Prior to that he was on the staff of The News and Observer in Raleigh and earlier served in the U.S. Air Force.

His writing has received awards from ACE and from the N.C. Press Association. In June of this year he received an Award of Merit from the Society for Technical Communicators. He is the author of a book on the history of the Town of Cary.

Byrd has served as acting head of his NCSU department and currently is in charge of the Press, Radio and TV Section. He has been active in the ACE professional organization throughout his career, serving as a director and as host state coordinator for the 1978 national ACE meeting in Asheville.

Employment Security Commission June Overpayments

RALEIGH — The N.C. Employment Security Commission recovered $149,714 in unemployment insurance overpayments in June, according to figures released by the commission's anti-fraud unit. The unit found that 60 of the 142 persons it investigated had been overpaid at a total of $10,693. The remaining 35 cases, involving $4,015 were classified as fraud. Of the 20 persons tried for unemployment insurance fraud in the state's courts in June, 19 were convicted. Of the overpayments recovered, $32,484 was obtained through refunds from overpayments recipients. The remaining $117,230 was obtained by withholding payments to eligible unemployment insurance claimants.

GOD FORGIVES. Let Him.

Feeling Guilty? Many people do. Reasons range from broken homes to unbroken habits. Whatever the cause, it's an ugly feeling. Guilt is both the fact of having done wrong and the feeling of blame for doing it. It's worst when the way you live leaves you empty, frustrated, and filled with regret. But there is a solution. Face the fact and remember God forgives. Then let Him! Before this ad was placed we started praying for you because we care. Give us a chance to share.

with love, the Annuitants of God.
