Social Security And You

By Lee Wallis
Field Representative

People who are thinking about retiring at the end of the year, should start making some serious plans now.

And those plans should include Social Security. There are several factors a person should consider.

First, a person under 65 considering retirement should remember that his Social Security benefit will be permanently reduced if received before 65.

The amount of the reduction depends on the number of months a person gets benefits before 65.

The reduction amounts to 20 per cent at 62, 13 and one-third per cent at 63, and six and two thirds per cent at 64. The reduction is figured by the number of months a person is under age 65.

Future cost of living benefit increases will also be reduced by the same amount.

Other factors can influence a person's decision to retire. Availability of a company pension could be a factor. So could the person's ability to continue working.

At any rate, a person should apply for Social Security retirement checks 2 or 3 months before he reaches 65 even though he has no retirement plans.

This will ensure that the person has full Medicare protection at the earliest possible time.

A person should have certain information ready when applying. A person needs his Social Security card.

Next, proof of date of birth is needed. An official record of birth or baptism recorded early in life is preferred. If this is not available, a person should submit the best evidence available.

Forms W-3 (Wage and Tax Statement) or self-employment tax returns for the past 3 years should be available. These are needed so that all of a person's earnings can be considered in figuring benefits.

A husband or wife who is also applying should have the same documents. Birth certificates of any eligible children are needed.

Do not delay applying if any evidence is not available. Call the Elizabeth

City Social Security Office. The people there can tell what other evidence may be used.

A free leaflet, "Thinking About Retiring?" is also available.

Social Security telephone service is available by calling 338-2161. Dare County residents can call toll-free by asking the Operator for Enterprise 161.

Children are like weeds. They will find the hole you set up for them, be it hooked or loose.

Bulldogs To Host Bertie

The Chowan Junior High Bulldogs open the grid campaign September 24 at Roper and will host Bertie at 4 P.M. on October 1.

On October 8 the Bulldogs will visit Knapp; host Williamson on October 15; go to Elizabeth City on October 22 and complete the season by playing Perquimans at Chowan. The Elizabeth City game begins at 3:30 P.M. while the remaining games are at 4 o'clock.

Jay Swicegood coaches the Bulldogs, assisted by Doug Ashton and Robert Woodley.

Miss Esther Hollingsworth is cheerleader sponsor.

The day's troubles are usually such trifles you can't remember them a day later. If you don't think so, what bothered you so much yesterday?
