

Local Couple Exchanges Wedding Vows

Miss Donna Kaye Brown and Mr. Charles H. Williams, Jr., exchanged wedding vows at 2 P.M. October 26, at Immanuel Baptist Church. Rev. Ashby Browder officiated at the double ring ceremony amid candelights, palms, and a floral basket made up of daisies, glads and mums. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Brown of Edenton. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Williams, Sr., of Edenton.

Mrs. Charles H. Williams, Jr.

Wedding music was provided by Mrs. Emma Evans, organist, and Miss Lynn Overton soloist.

The bride was escorted by her father and given in marriage by her parents. The bride chose a formal chapel length gown of quiana and silk venise lace. The gown featured a sweetheart neckline with long fitted sleeves. She wore a finger-tip length mantilla on a camelot headpiece trimmed with venise lace.

The bride carried a cascade nosegay of white and peach colored silk daisies.

Miss Sandra Selover, niece of the bride, served as maid of honor.

Bridesmaids were: Miss Carol Williams, sister of the groom of Edenton; Mrs. Glenda Selover, sister of the bride, and Wanda Selover, niece of the bride, both of Chesapeake, Va.; and Mrs. Sheila Barnes, sister of the bride, of Virginia Beach.

Mr. Williams served as best man for his son. Ushers were: Pete Belch, Frankie Parker, Mike Lane and Richard Taylor, all of Edenton.

Honorary bridesmaids were: Kathleen Jethro, Peggy Weiss, Candy Winslow, Kim Lane, Cathy Williams and Marcia Evans all of Edenton; Mandy Doughtie, of Gatesville, Terry Hardison, of Roper and Lisa Barnes of Virginia Beach.

Mrs. Pat Whitson, of Edenton served as mistress of ceremonies.

Miss Julie Williams, sister of the groom, presided at the register.

David Williams, brother of the groom passed out programs.

The bride's mother wore a formal length plum colored gown of lusterlo polyester with chiffon sleeves and an empire waist which fell into a pleated skirt. She wore a silk corsage to match her gown.

The groom's mother wore a formal length lavender gown with a V neckline with the bodice and skirt of crystal pleating. She also wore a silk corsage to match her gown.

Following the ceremony the brides parents entertained with a reception at Arrowhead Beach Clubhouse.

After a wedding trip to Asheville, the couple resides in Edenton.

Courtesies

A Kitchen and Pantry Shower was given by Candy Winslow and Janet Harmon on October 9 at the home of Candy Winslow.

A floating miscellaneous shower was given on October 16 by Mrs. Kathleen Jethro.

The groom's parents entertained at a rehearsal party in the fellowship hall of the church on Saturday October 25.

Mrs. Timothy Habit Dowd

Mr. Dowd Claims Bride

WILSON—Hornes United Methodist Church was the setting Saturday afternoon at 2 P.M. for the wedding of Miss Cynthia Kaye Ferrell and Timothy Habit Dowd. Rev. Charles Acker officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reese Homer Ferrell Jr., Route 1, Wilson. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Lawrence Michael Dowd of Edenton and the late Mr. Dowd.

Escorted by her father and given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a floor-length gown of sata peau and peau d'ange lace which featured a fitted bodice with a Victorian neckline, illusion yoke and long sheer sleeves. A scalloped lace border encircled the hem and chapel train. For her headpiece she chose a waltz-length mantilla of illusion edged with peau d'ange lace. The bride carried a cascading silk bouquet of white gardenias interspersed with baby's breath and ivy. Her only jewelry was a silver heart necklace which was given to her mother by her father at the time of their wedding.

Miss Kimberly Ferrell and Mrs. John C. Habit of Wilson, sisters of the bride, were honor attendants. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Jim Croke, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Mary Ann Baddour of Raleigh; Mrs. John T. Dowd of Edenton, sister-in-law of the bridegroom; Mrs. Gregory Proctor of Rocky Mount, cousin of the bride; Miss Cammie Lowery of Chapel Hill; Miss Betsy Hodges of Beaufort and Miss Kathy Cox of Greenville.

Michael Dowd of Edenton was his brother's best man. Ushers were John T. Dowd of Edenton, brother of the bridegroom; Frank Habit, Jr., of Greensboro, cousin of the bridegroom; John C. Habit of Wilson, cousin of the bridegroom; and brother-in-law of the bride; Jim Croke, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, Henry Herbert and Robert Wright of Raleigh; Michael DeBlois of Enfield and Jeff Covington of Greenville.

Wedding music was provided by Mrs. William T. Wiggs of Goldsboro, organist and Mrs. George C. Murray of Wilson, the bride's cousin and vocalist.

Reception

Immediately following the ceremony the bride's parents and her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Garland Fountain of Rocky Mount, entertained at a reception in the Ferrell home.

The serving table was covered with a white lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of champagne, blue and yellow silk flowers in a silver Revere bowl flanked by silver candelabra.

Fall flowers were used throughout the home.

Ricemaidens were Angela Ferrell of Wilson and Martha Fountain of Rocky Mount, cousins of the bride.

Upon their return from a wedding trip to the mountains of Virginia and Williamsburg, Va., the couple will live in Enfield.

Mrs. Dowd is a graduate of Southern Nash High School, a magna cum laude graduate of East Carolina University, and teaches mathematics at Southern Nash High School. A graduate of John A. Holmes High School in Edenton, Mr. Dowd attended College of the Albemarle, graduated from Pitt Community College, and is an adjuster with Peoples Bank and Trust Company in Enfield.

Friday evening the bridegroom's mother entertained at an after-rehearsal part and dance at Wedgewood Country Club.

Fall flowers and hurricane globes with burning tapers decorated the tables.

"God's Covenant and Paul", Acts 13:44-52; II Cor. 3:4-6, was the topic for our adults, ably taught by Wyatt Hendrick. Paul was God's "chosen vessel" to spread the Good News of salvation to the Gentiles. Aim was that adult Christians determine to be faithful ministers of the New Covenant.

—O—
"Happy Birthday" was sung by all in honor of Bea Peters as she place her contribution in our Birthday Bank.

—O—
At our Worship Service, Deacon Thomas H. Dilday welcomed the fine group gathered in God's House to give thanks for His countless blessings. Following the opening exercises, he introduced our guest minister, Rev. Robert Harrell, a native of Chowan County, now residing approximately 5 miles from us. He served in the U. S. Air Force and has pastored churches in North Carolina and Virginia. Presently, he's assisting churches locally.

—O—
In his opening remarks, Rev. Harrell stated that he felt he had some connection with Bandon in that while he was serving as Supt. of Missions, his membership was at Rocky Hock and he was on the Pulpit Committee which led to the calling of Rev. Garrett, who was instrumental in the establishment of Bandon Chapel.

—O—
So true, We at Bandon consider Rocky Hock to be our "mother" church. Rev. Garrett and his people helped us in every way and he was always available when we needed advice or encouragement.

—O—
Rev. Harrell's most enjoyable and informative message was "Let Your Life Reflect Your Words", Mark 1:21-28. Brief resume follows: The early ministry of Jesus was in Capernaum and Galilee. Capernaum was a cosmopolitan town on the great trade route to Damascus. It was a city of Custom and Dues, where people paid for the privilege of carrying their goods through the city to other parts of the country.

There was a Roman Garrison there indicating it was a city of law and order.

In his ministry Jesus was associated with the "common people" and these people heard Him gladly. There was in His teaching a freshness and power that was absent in the teachers of that time. The primary function of those teachers was to maintain the position of the Elders. Jesus' primary concern was vital, living, dynamic relationship with God. Quite often Jesus felt the need to rebuke their piety and religiosity. He called them hypocrites. It was a very scathing accusation - pretending to be something they weren't. So - the people said of Jesus "He teaches with authority" - no conflict between His Words and His manner of life - between Jesus, the teacher and Jesus, the man.

Even though He associated with tax collectors, business tycoons, prostitutes, beggars, fisherman, wedding parties, etc., no one ever caught Him in a lie or in a compromising situation. When He spoke, it was with authority and people listened to what He had to say. There was no discrepancy between what He said and the life He lived.

The words of the Church should be picked up with the life of the Church. It's a troublesome thing to contemplate the other side of the card. Today, the Church, unfortunately, is what we say - not what we live.

The call of God goes out to us this morning. We, too, can speak with authority if there is no conflict between the words we say and the way we live.

I don't know anything the world needs more today. Try it.

Christmas Open House Is Planned

WINDSOR—Step into the past when Hope Plantation decks its halls for a Christmas Open House on Sunday, December 7, from 1:30 P. M. until 6 P. M. in the afternoon. Located on Highway 308 four miles west of Windsor, this annual holiday event will include carols, tours, and refreshments.

The Georgian to Federal styled Hope Plantation, built circa 1800, is the restored home of David Stone, governor of North Carolina from 1808-1810. From its garland trimmed Chinese Chippendale balustrade and keystone arch to the scrumptious smell of apple cider, Hope will delight guest who come to inspect the traditional fruit and greenery used in Christmas arrangements of former days.

In 1935, Carl Magee patented the first coin-operated parking meter.

Superior Court Judges

The Judicial Nominating Committee is now accepting candidates for Special Superior Court Judge. This vacancy arises upon the appointment of Special Superior Court Judge Samuel E. Britt as Resident Superior Court Judge of the Sixteenth Judicial District.

Gov. James Hunt has determined that he will fill this vacancy from nominations submitted by the First Division Panel of the Judicial Nominating Committee. Nominees must be residents of the First Judicial Division.

The Judicial Nominating Committee was created by

Gov. Hunt by Executive Order to provide for non-partisan selection of Superior Court Judges. It is the purpose of this committee to seek out and nominate to the Governor the best qualified persons to hold judicial office.

Citizens are invited to recommend to the committee candidates for this position by writing to the Executive Secretary, Judicial Nominating Committee, Office of the Governor, Raleigh, N. C. 27611. The committee will be accepting nominations and applications through December 9.
