1 cup sifted flour
1 egg
1/4 cup brown sugar, firmly packed
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 tablespoon softened butter or margarine
two-thirds cup chopped pecans, divided.

Combine cream cheese, 1/2 cup butter and flour in medium mixing bowl; chill covered one hour. Shape into 24 one-inch balls. Press each dough ball over bottom and up sides of ungreased miniature muffin pans. Preheat oven to 325 degrees. Combine egg, brown sugar, vanilla, salt and one tablespoon butter in small mixing bowl; beat until smooth. Divide one-third cup pecans among tarts. Pour egg mixture into muffin cups. Top with remaining pecans. Bake 25 minutes or until lightly browned. Cool slightly; remove from pan with fork. Makes 24 tarts.

The heat hangs on so some coolers might be in order around your house. Lime Fluff is a light but delightful dessert. Combine one three-ounce package of lime flavor gelatin and one and one-fourth cups boiling water in blender container. Cover and blend until gelatin is dissolved. Add one pint softened vanilla ice cream. Cover and blend again until smooth. Pour into 4 dessert dishes; cover and chill until partially set. Stir mixture; chill until set. Serve with a puff of whipped cream.

Bananas we have with us always and they are handy for making Banana Flip. This could help the break-fast-skippers get through a warm morning.

Place four ripe bananas, two tablespoons honey and two cups cold milk in blender container. Cover; blend until bananas are well pureed. Add two more cups milk; blend until frothy. Serve at once in chilled glasses topped with sweetened whipped cream and a sprinkled of nutmeg. Serves 6.

RETIREES AFTER 35 YEARS — Bill Davis, of 303 Court Street, retired recently after 35 years of service. Mr. Davis had been employed by Edenton as foreman of the Street Department. When asked if he planned to keep busy during his retirement Bill replied that, "if you want to keep on working, why retire?"

NCSU Parents' Day Set

The fourth annual Parents' Day at N. C. State University will be held Sept. 26, the NCSU Parents' Association has announced. The Parents Day program will include a variety of activities designed to give parents of NCSU students a closer look at the University, and will culminate with the NCSU-Maryland football game in Carter-Finley Stadium. Headquarters for the program will be the NCSU McKimmon Center, where parents will hear remarks from Acting Chancellor Nash N. Winstead, men's varsity basketball coach, Jim Valvano, and student government president, Ronald Spivey. Parents will also eat a buffet luncheon at the center with their sons and daughters and be entertained by the NCSU Stage Band and a specially prepared slide show. The program is being held in conjunction with the University Open House, an annual event which includes displays and tours throughout the campus. "Silence is a friend who never betrays." Confucius

Carolina Review: Edmisten Tackles Fraud Cases

NEWS? ... Atty. Gen. Rufus Edmisten was in the news last week. North Carolina's chief law enforcement officer called a special news conference on Thursday to announce a new, get-tough policy against fraud in the state. Edmisten cited three particular types of "scams" that are being used to rip off North Carolina businesses. He said the rip-offs ultimately cost Tar Heel consumers millions of dollars.

The use of phony invoices, fraudulent office supply sales and the sale of advertisements in non-existent public service journals, according to Edmisten, are the most popular fraudulent schemes presently in use. Edmisten brought along 11 representatives of business associations from across the state to back up and to discuss his assertions. No doubt the attorney general was absolutely correct, and is to be commended, for promoting a campaign to help reduce such fraud in the state. For sure, the announcement of the state's first "coordinated" effort against scam operators, publicity about specific types of schemes, and a public plea for businesses to report the rip-offs will be a shot-in-the-arm for law enforcement.

But there is a problem here and the problem will grow tremendously in the next two or three years. The problem is that Atty. Gen. Rufus Edmisten is undoubtedly running for governor of North Carolina - not just in the months just prior to the 1984 election, but right now. As the 1984 election time grows nearer (forget 1982, that's local show biz), public office seekers and public office holders will hold more and more "special" news conferences for pre-election publicity. Unfortunately, those holding the news "events" will likely have to have something to say or to announce - a new policy or promise of a new policy if elected perhaps. New policies usually cost new taxpayer money. There are those who would tell you that classroom aids for grammar school teachers and vastly reduced classroom sizes didn't come about until certain skilled politicians decided to convince the public and the teachers that here was an excellent new policy that was needed. On the flip side, of course, is the fact that "mainstreaming" of kids made the teacher's aids and smaller classroom numbers especially plausible.

Now, however, federal assistance is being cut and state revenues are not growing accordingly and teacher salaries are being squeezed out by the "luxuries."

That's just one example. An excellent idea to fill a growing need within the state. As new ideas for new policies begin to make the rounds, North Carolinians will have to be especially critical about which ideas they can afford. Frankly, new policies and new spending aren't the only problems North Carolinians will have to study critically as the number of news conferences grows in the political season. Politicians with little to say will use news conferences as a free medium to gain public awareness. When his gubernatorial star was shining brightly at the beginning of this past legislature, Jimmy Green willingly subjected himself to free publicity through periodic news conferences. Yet when his gubernatorial hopes ran aground with reports of a $4700 cash gift from a convicted bid-rigger, the state's second highest elected official was unavailable for comment.

School Bus Safety Tips

It's that time of year again... the kids are off to school. Many will ride the school bus; others will walk to and from school. Please help your child remain safe by teaching the following Safety Tips:

- Walking to School:
1. If there's no sidewalk, always walk facing the traffic. That way, you can watch out for cars that may not be watching out for you.
 2. Never cross the street at curves, always cross at corners. When possible, use a crosswalk, obeying all lights and signs.
 3. When you cross, remember to check traffic to the left, right, and to the left one more time.
- Riding the Bus:
1. Always stand where it's safe, back from the road, away from traffic.
 2. Wait until the bus is completely stopped, with its arm out and the door open before moving.
 3. Check traffic carefully and cross quickly but without running.
 4. Always walk where the driver can clearly see you.
 5. Always keep the aisle clear so no one will trip getting on or off.
 6. Keep your head and arms inside so nothing passing can harm you.
 7. Keep the noise down so that the driver will not be distracted.
- Getting off the Bus:
1. Stay seated until the bus has come to a complete stop. Don't forget to use the handrails.
 2. Never linger near the bus. It could start moving and hurt you.
 3. Once you've left the bus, don't come back. Your driver may not see that you've returned.
 4. Never cross behind the bus.

Facts About The BIBLE BY JOHN LEHTI

LYDIA-EUROPE'S FIRST CHRISTIAN CONVERT!

WHEN PAUL MADE HIS SECOND MISSIONARY JOURNEY HE CAME TO THE CITY OF PHILIPPI IN MACEDONIA (GREECE). PHILIPPI WAS A LARGE CITY DUE TO THE GOLD MINING INDUSTRY IN THE NEARBY MOUNTAINS. ALTHOUGH THERE WERE JEWS LIVING HERE, APPARENTLY THERE WAS NO SYNAGOGUE FOR PAUL HAD TO GO OUTSIDE THE CITY ON THE SABATH TO A NEARY RIVER WHERE WASHING, NECESSARY TO THE RELIGIOUS CEREMONIES, COULD BE PERFORMED. HERE HE FOUND ONLY A GROUP OF WOMEN ENGAGED IN WORSHIP AND TO THESE HE BEGAN TO PREACH HIS MESSAGE. LYDIA, WHO WAS AMONGST THEM, WAS SO TAKEN BY PAUL'S PREACHING THAT SHE IMMEDIATELY ASKED FOR BAPTISM, INCLUDING HER ENTIRE HOUSEHOLD!

LYDIA WAS NOT JEWISH, HERSELF, BUT WAS A FIRM BELIEVER IN GOD AND WORSHIPPED WITH THE JEWS. SHE WAS A WOMAN OF WEALTH, DEALING IN THE PURPLE-DYED FABRICS MANUFACTURED IN THYATYRA, ONE OF THE LARGE GARMENT CENTERS IN ASIA-MINOR AND FROM WHENCE SHE ORIGINALLY HAILED. AFTER HER BAPTISM, LYDIA PUT HER PALATIAL HOME ENTIRELY AT THE DISPOSAL OF PAUL AND HIS ENTOURAGE FOR THEIR ENTIRE STAY IN THOSE PARTS! (ACTS 16: 12-15)
