Card Of Thanks

The family of the late Dr. Francisco Hernandez Vargas would like to thank all neighbors and friends for the lovely flowers, cards and prayers during their hour of bereavement. Dr. Vargas, a native of Puerto Rico, was a representative to the United Nations, appearing and speaking on behalf of Puerto Rico. In 1978, after several years of study in Spain, Dr. Vargas received his Ph.D. (doctorate) in law, after which he returned to Puerto Rico to continue his law business. Dr. Vargas was also a well known poet, having much of his work published. He is survived by a wife, seven children, grandchildren, five brothers and seven sisters, all of whom reside in Puerto Rico except for one sister, Elva H. Wright who resides in Edenton, N. C. Memorial services were held on September 17, in memory and in honor of Dr. Vargas for his outstanding service to his family and the people of the island. Everyone's in grateful remembrance. May God Bless all of you.

Thank you, Elba H. Wright, Elwood Wright, and children chg.

recommend a successor to Chancellor Thomas B. Brewer, who will resign next June. The faculty will have four representatives on the selection committee, one who may be the Chair of the Faculty, Dr. Thomas H. Johnson, a health and physical education professor, but who will be named by the committee chairman.

"Members of the General Faculty are encouraged to submit names of candidates to their Senators before the meeting," Johnson said in issuing the call for the 3 P.M. Oct. 6 meeting in Room 205, Home Economics Bldg. ECU trustees chairman Ashley B. Futrell of Washington will chair the Chancellor Selection Committee and has asked receipt of names of the Faculty Senate nominees by Oct. 6, Johnson said. "Mr. Futrell has requested that nominees be accompanied by a letter which states the qualities and strengths (each) would bring to the Selection Committee," Johnson said. He asked that such information be submitted in writing at the time of the nominations.

The Chancellor Selection Committee also will include five trustees, the president of the ECU Alumni Association and president of the Student Government Association.

Trojans Post Another Win, 13-6

The Immanuel Christian Trojans continued their winning ways this past week with a 13-6 win over the Alumni. Joseph Craddock took a 3 yd. pass from first string quarterback, Chuckie Evans, in the opening minutes of the fourth quarter to break a 6-6 tie. The extra point was added on a pass to Tim Brabble.

The Alumni team made up in part of former Trojan students from past years, scored in the opening minutes of the game on a 32 yd. pass from Barry Leary to Gary Brower. The extra point attempt failed. The Trojans scored their first points late in the first quarter on a one yard sprint by tailback, Ronnie Whitley. The attempt for the extra point fell just short of the goal line.

The game was marked by outstanding defensive play on behalf of both teams until the final score by the Trojans. Immanuel stopped the Alumni twice inside the 10 yd. line with the last defensive stand taking place in the final two minutes.

At half time the crowd was treated to a display of the talents of the little Trojans as they participated in a twenty minute game. The Elementary boys were divided up into two teams consisting of the Cowboys and the Redskins. The final outcome had the cowboys prevailing 6-0.

Regular season gets underway this week with Immanuel traveling to Wilson to play the Temple Christian Patriots. Game time will be Friday evening at 1 P. M.

Physician Writes Guide To Life

PHILADELPHIA — The Middle Years, a physician's guide to life challenges in middle age, is now available in selected bookstores across the country. The book, written by Donald L. Donohugh, MD, FACP, of Corona Del Mar, CA, is the second in a series produced by the American College of Physicians and The Saunders Press.

Dr. Donohugh's book is not a simple collection of advice on keeping physically fit after forty; it is a broad exploration of numerous aspects of this period in life. Divided into sections on Myths of Middle Age, Man and Mortality, The Body, The Mind, The Person, The Family,

Labor and Leisure, and Values in Life, The Middle Years concludes with an extensive bibliography and a convenient index.

Faced with problems of middle age in his patients and himself, Dr. Donohugh searched for information on the subject. Finding few articles for physicians on middle age and virtually no factual information for the general reader, he began work on The Middle Years. The resulting blend of current health information, concise explanations of scientific concepts and bits of personal insight provides a curiously harmonious combination of comforting advice and challenging questions for those over forty. Dr. Donohugh, an internist, sold his medical practice when he reached middle age and now teaches as an associate clinical professor of medicine at the University of California at Irvine.

The cloth bound, 427 page Middle Years, which sells for $14.95, was published June 4, 1981 and is available in local bookstores.
