Stamp Issued

The 1981 commemorative stamp honoring James Hoban, Irish - American Architect of the White House, was dedicated there September 29.

Participating in the White House ceremony was the First Lady, Mrs. Ronald Reagan, Postmaster General William F. Bolger and Irish Ambassador Sean Donlon.

The Postal Service said today that actual issuance of the Hoban stamp will be delayed because of uncertainty about postage rate increases. The Postal Service Board of Governors met again Tuesday to continue discussion on the latest rejection by the Postal Rate Commission of the proposed 20-cent First-Class rate. When the Hoban stamp is issued, the denomination will be the First-Class rate in effect at that time.

The Postal Service also advised collectors to withhold orders for first day of issue cancellations and further notice.
