

Letter To The Editor

Dear Sir:

We here in the Chamber are hoping that you will help us publicize our upcoming Chamber sponsored Christmas Parade for 1981 by doing some public service announcements for us.

The Plymouth and Washington County Chamber of Commerce will sponsor the Annual Christmas Parade on Saturday, November 28, 1981 at 10:30 A. M. Our rain date is set for Thursday, December 10, at 5:30 P. M. We are happy to have Joe Shortleeve, Meteorologist for WITN-TV as our Grand Marshall.

Any assistance you can render us in getting this to the public would be greatly appreciated. Do come and join us that day for a great parade.

Best regards,
Olin Davis,
Chairman

Craft Co-op Items Noted

You often hear about farm co-ops across the state, but most people are unaware that we have located in Elizabeth City's old train depot one of the few craft co-ops which exists in North Carolina. Watermark, with 280 members, is an energetic organization with craftsmen who produce a variety of items.

For the tradition minded, some of Watermark's craftsmen specialize in the Heritage Crafts: lye soap making, cornshuck flowers, grapevine wreaths, wooden dough bowls, and handmade candles. Others choose to do the Standard Crafts such as decoys, pottery, dolls, pillows, stuffed toys, and wooden toys. And other craftsmen are specialist at the New Crafts such as soft sculptures, tote painted birds, macrame, and ultra suede creations.

Quality control for the craft items is assured through a Screening Committee which juries every craftsman's products before he is accepted into the co-op. After acceptance, a Standards Committee and the Shop Manager periodically inspect the many items brought into the retail shop; only crafts which meet the prescribed high quality levels are allowed to be sold.

Leading the thrust for expanding the co-op's membership and retail sales is the new manager Carolyn McKecuen. She has set as one of her goals to greatly increase sales through opening wholesaling outlets throughout the east coast. She has already personally visited and shown local crafts to outlets in New York, Philadelphia, Boone, Virginia, and Washington, D. C., and will be seeking other outlets for the large number of working craftsmen.

With so many craftsmen, the co-op can add another area of service to customers which most businesses can't - specialty orders. Whatever the person's needs are, there's a craftsman who can fill them. Special orders over the past two months have ranged from dolls whose names, characteristics, and clothes match the child they're ordered for, the decorator rag rugs which have been designed to match the color and style of the room they will be used in.

Go to the old train depot on Hughes Boulevard any Monday through Saturday from 10 A. M. until 5 P. M. and have your senses delighted with crafts, both old and new, which will amaze you with their scope and variety.

Each of these advertised items is required to be readily available for sale at or below the advertised price in each A&P Store, except as specifically noted in this ad.
