Postal Christmas Gifts Available

Postmaster James Bond of Edenton recently announced release of the U. S. Postal Service's 1981 Commemorative Mint Set and the latest edition of Stamps & Stories, a Postal Service book on stamp collecting for the new collector as well as the experienced philatelist.

The 1981 Mint Set album contains all the 40 commemorative and special stamps issued by the U. S. Postal Service during 1981 (including the 1981 Christmas stamps and a description of each.)

The 1981 Commemorative Mint Set is the most recent in a series of annual sets released by the Postal Service each year prior to the holiday season. The cover of the $8.25 Mint Set features a montage of artwork related to the commemorative stamps. Inside the album are clear strips of acetate in which to mount and protect the collection.

The new full-color eighth edition of Stamps & Stories - The U. S. Postal Service Encyclopedia of U. S. Stamps, is on sale and is priced at $3.50, the same as last year's book. The 280-page book provides interesting philatelic information such as 1981 market values for the novice and experienced collector. It includes information on price trends of selected stamp issues, catalogue numbers and current prices for souvenir pages and commemorative panels, and an index listing of every U. S. Commemorative panels, and an index listing of every U. S. Commemorative stamp ever issued.

Stamps & Stories, designed to introduce non-collectors to stamp collecting, also contains more than 100 stories about U. S. stamp subjects and designs.

Parent's Day

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney White, Route 2, Edenton, were among close to the 400 parents, relatives, and friends who recently attended Parents' Day activities in Wingate College, Wingate, N. C.

In addition to the many attending from North Carolina, parents came from as far away as Florida, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and New Hampshire, as well as South Carolina and Georgia. They spent the day touring the campus, meeting faculty members, and being entertained by a wide variety of spectator and participant activities.
