Alcohol Awareness Week, Jan. 17-23

The week of January 17-23 has been proclaimed by Gov. James B. Hunt, Jr., as Alcoholism Awareness Week. The highlight of this week will be a three-day symposium on alcohol research to be held in Winston-Salem. The eighth annual "Alcoholism-The Search for the Sources" meeting will attract scientists from across North Carolina as well as from out of state.

The program for the meeting on January 20-23 includes speakers examining the biological, epidemiological, neuroscientific and psychiatric aspects of the search for causes of alcoholism. Also, Dr. Ann P. Streissguth, from the University of Washington at Seattle, will speak on fetal alcohol syndrome and Dr. Leon Gordis, D.P.H., from the Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore, will discuss building research into clinical programs.

A registration fee is required for this conference. More information is available by contacting the Alcoholism Research Authority at 919-966-4714.

Thigpen played as E flat saxophone and Mary Ann Elliott played a B flat clarinet.

James Byrum was clubmaster of the Edenton cubpack.

Council Funds Are Available

Are you a member of a Chowan County youth group or an organization which is planning an innovative youth program? Would a little money help?

Funds are available to assist you.

The N. C. State Youth Council awards $1,625 quarterly to local organizations proposing worthy projects. The average grant is for $400.

Applications are screened and awards are approved at State Youth Council Board of Directors meetings. Awards are reviewed by the State Youth Advisory Council before they are granted.

For information and a mini-grant application form, contact the Youth Involvement Office, Elks Building, 121 W. Jones Street, Raleigh 27611 or telephone 919-733-5966.

The State Youth Council is a component of the Youth Involvement Office and networks youth councils across the state. Although the council advises existing councils and helps new ones get started, the grants are not restricted to youth councils.
