

Couple United In Marriage

The marriage of Miss Betty Jo Harrison and Charles Nelson Cozart, both of Lubbock, Texas, was solemnized in a lovely candlelight service in Zion Chapel Church of Christ in Roper on Saturday evening, January 2 at six o'clock.

The church sanctuary was banked with fern, roses, baskets of gladioli, burgundy carnations, daisies and eucalyptus, flanked by arched candelabras. The windows were lighted with twin tapers, and candles accented with lilies and burgundy ribbons lighted the aisle.

Rev. Arnold Pressy officiated in the double-ring ceremony. Wedding music was presented by Mrs. Wade Adams of Plymouth, organist, and Mrs. Mack Snell of Roper, soloist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hope Clinton Harrison of Roper. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. William Merritt Cozart, Sr. of Edenton.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white silk organza over bridal satin. The fitted Empire bodice featured a sheer Brussels lace yoke and Victorian collar. Peau d'agne lace with accents of seed pearls overlaid the bodice and full bishop sleeves. The shirt lace motifs mounting an accordion pleated hemline flared and extended into a full chapel train. She wore a hat of imported lace from which a short veil extended.

She carried a bridal bouquet of silk orchids, burgundy azaleas and pink sweetheart roses, accented with gypsophila and fern.

Miss Cynthia Ann Harrison of Roper, niece of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a gown of burgundy tulle. The bodice featured a sheer lace yoke and sleeves with peplum waistline. She carried a Colonial silk bouquet of burgundy azaleas, cream gardenias, Boston fern and gypsophila.

Bridesmaids were Miss Rebecca Robinson of Raleigh; Mrs. David Green and Mrs. Joseph Rath, both of Cary; Mrs. William Franklin Lucas of Plymouth; and Miss Janis Elizabeth Belch of Newport News, Va., cousin of the groom. They wore gowns identical to that of the maid of honor. Each carried Colonial bouquets of burgundy azaleas, Boston fern and gypsophila.

Flower girls were Miss Kathryn Virginia Cozart of Mocksville, niece of the groom; and Miss Desire Ketrick of Cary. They wore cream satin dresses featuring tucks and lace.

The father of the groom was his son's best man. Ushers were William Merritt Cozart, Jr., of Mocksville, brother of the groom; Thomas Edward Ward, Jr. and Albert Ward, both of Edenton; Joseph Everett Kenney of Wilmington; and Paul Kenneth Davis of Raleigh.

Mrs. Wolly Vann of Roper was mistress of ceremonies.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church.

The bride attended a Wake County Community College in Raleigh, and is now associated with Cosmopolitan Spa in Lubbock, Texas.

The groom attended East Carolina University and the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. He is also associated with Cosmopolitan Spa in Lubbock.

After a wedding trip in the Sierra Blanca mountains of New Mexico, the couple will make their home in Lubbock.

TIRED EYES

If you're experiencing tired eyes when you read for a long time or while doing close work on the job, you may need reading glasses.

This happens to a lot of people as they approach middle-age or pass the 40-year mark. If the problem is in your focusing muscles, that's natural enough. As most people get older, their focusing muscles get weaker. They have trouble reading.

When you're dining out, do you have difficulty reading the menu? Or do you feel eye strain when reading a newspaper or magazine? Does any printed matter have to be held farther away from your eyes than normal? Do you have to squint to read the fine print?

It's not worth the eye strain or headaches to put off getting glasses or contact lenses, if your eyes need help. Whether you're on the job or at home, you want to be able to see and read in comfort, without strain. An eye examination is the only way you can be sure your eyes are getting all the help they need.

SAVE ME A PLACE

If a child's front tooth is knocked out by accident under the right circumstances and time-frame, it might be able to be replanted successfully. However, if the knocked-out tooth is a baby tooth, due to fall out soon, the dentist may do nothing. A missing back tooth, however, whether lost by accident or extraction, needs a space maintainer to prevent other teeth from drifting into the space. An overcrowded space would prevent the permanent tooth from coming in properly.

There are a number of devices available depending on the situation. The most common types involve putting a metal band over the tooth on either side of the space, taking an impression, and then joining the bands by attaching a metal bar to each. The bands are cemented to the teeth, and the bar prevents the teeth from drifting toward each other.

It is just as important that the space maintainer be removed at the proper time (when the permanent tooth comes in) or there will be new problems. Therefore, it is important to have your child see the dentist regularly, especially if he or she has a space maintainer.
