

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor,
I am presently doing research and compiling information on the subject of North Carolina token scrip which I plan to publish as a book in the future.

I am in need of help from your readership in furnishing me some needed information for an aluminum token that I have from Edenton. The token reads "CHOWANOKE CLUB, EDENTON, N.C." with the reverse showing a "5" at center. Evidently the token was used in the club, but who knows about this Chowanoke Club -- its purpose, location, time period and etc.

will respond with the information. I have made a drawing of the token which is actually much smaller, 20mm in diameter.

I thank you and your readers for the help.
Yours sincerely,
Jerry R. Roughton

On Dean's List

ROCKY MOUNT — David Lindley Jordan has been named to the Dean's List for the 1981 fall term at North Carolina Wesleyan College. Jordan, a freshman biology major, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Jordan.

Pro-Am Finals Set For August

Sherril Austin, of Hickory, chairman of the Golf Work Group of the N. C. Affiliate of the American Heart Association and president, Carolina Professional Golf Association, has confirmed that the 1982 Heart Fund Pro-Am finals will be played at Foxfire Golf and Country Club in Pinehurst in August under the sponsorship of the Branch Banking and Trust Company.

Local qualifying tournaments of four man teams will play best net two balls of four and 75 per cent of handicap for 18 holes through July 23, 1982.

Local winners will progress to Foxfire where they will participate in a 36 hole tournament. Each four man team will be paired with a member of the Carolinas PGA to compete for a $10,000 purse and prizes.

Additional information can be obtained from Sherril Austin at (704)-294-3737 or Nancy Williams of the Heart Association at (919) 489-2388.

Shift the Tax Burden

If we taxed the money we spend instead of the money we make, one expert explains, we might be able to make more money.
