Eight Listed In Who's Who

Eight College of The Albemarle students will be listed in the 1982 edition of "Who's Who Among Students in American Junior Colleges."

G. John Simmons, Jr. dean of student development, said the group has been selected to join the ranks of the country's most outstanding campus leaders. Campus nominating committees and editors of the annual directory chose the students on the basis of academic achievement, community service, extracurricular leadership, and future potential.

Simmons said outstanding students have been honored in the directory since it was first published in 1934. More than 1,300 postsecondary institutions in all 50 states, the district of Columbia and several foreign nations participate in the special recognition.

Those named this year from COA include four Elizabeth City residents: Gail Denise Boothe, pre-business administration, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold V. Boothe, Sr.; Vicky Lawrence Braddy, associate degree nursing, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Lawrence; Anna Joyce F. DiGiovanni, ADN, daughter of E. Pratt Fearing; and Dana Ruth Nunes, ADN, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Nunes.

Also named were: H. Ross Adderholt of Hobbsville, pre-business administration; Lisa Winslow Bunch of Belvidere, medical secretary technology; Mary Jo Forehand of Gregory, liberal arts; and Richard R. McElrath of Moyock, pre-science.

Meadows Benefit Dinner Is Planned

The Edward G. Bond Post 40 American Legion will sponsor a fund raising benefit dinner in an effort to help defray a portion of the medical expenses of Miss
