

For And About Women

Miss Cooke, Mr. Southern Plan To Marry

Rev. and Mrs. George Cooke of Tyner announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Donna Beth, to Danny Ray Southern, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gollie Southern of Toast, N.C. The wedding will take place at Ballard's Bridge Baptist Church, March 6 at 2 P.M. Beth is a 1977 graduate of Chowan High School and a 1981 graduate of East Carolina University, Greenville. Danny is a 1977 graduate of North Surry High School and a 1981 graduate of North Carolina State University, Raleigh. Friends and relatives of the couple are invited.

Mrs. Mitchener Is Guest Speaker

The Fannie A. Parker Woman's Club was fortunate to have as its guest resource person Mrs. John Mitchener, III.

No program given at the club has brought more enthusiastic comments than her talk. She spoke on the "Status of Oriental Women compared to Women in this Country". The theme of the entire discourse was love and respect for self and all mankind. She also told how the youth in Vietnam was taught to respect their elders. In this country most of the women work outside of the home and therefore do not have the time to really train their children as they should.

After the program was over there was a short social hour in which a lovely repass was served.

The club is very grateful to Mrs. Mitchener for giving her time and thoughts in order to bring to us such as inspiring message.

Ext. Homemakers Hold Meeting

On Jan. 21 the Cape Colony Extension Homemakers Club held its first meeting of the year at their club house with the club president, Mrs. Janie Chapman, presiding.

Fifteen members attended with two new members, Mrs. Charlotte Greene and Mrs. Elva Stroud, being added. Janie Chapman was the hostess for the month of January, serving delicious refreshments at the end of the meeting.

The yearly agenda was planned and the chairman for the year was selected. The officers for the new year are: Janie Chapman, president; Mary Thebeau, vice president; Myrtle Webb, secretary; and Jean Roberts, treasurer.

On Feb. 27 the club will celebrate Valentine's Day by having a Sweetheart dinner, husbands and guests are invited. Thelma Ruetschi is publicity chairman.

Southern History Seminar Planned

The Museum of Early Southern Decorative Arts in Winston-Salem, together with the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, will sponsor a graduate Summer Institute entitled "Early Southern History and Decorative Arts" from June 27 through July 23.

This will be the seventh successive year of the Institute, which offers a comprehensive study of the decorative arts and history of the South before 1820. The 1962 program will focus in detail on the material culture of the Chesapeake Region, including Tidewater Maryland, Virginia, and Northeastern North Carolina.

Students with an interest in material culture, history, American art, or museum studies are encouraged to apply. Three semester hours of graduate credit in history will be given. Enrollment is limited to twenty students, and partial fellowships are available.

For further information and application forms, write to Sally Gant, Education Coordinator, Summer Institute, MESDA, Post Office Box 10310, Winston-Salem, N. C. 27106.

If A Filling Falls Out

Every dentist I've ever met would like his patient's fillings to last forever. However, while a good many restorations do sustain for the life of the tooth, no filling ever becomes an organic, integral part of it. Thus none CAN be guaranteed to last indefinitely.

Even a filling placed with the best of intentions and preparation can fail for a variety of reasons. If there is not enough of an undercut in the remaining tooth structure, the filling can fall out. Occasionally a part of the tooth around the filling will break, loosening the lock, and the filling will fall out. If decay recurs, the filling may become surrounded by decay, loosen and fall out. It should also be noted that, the larger the filling, the greater the risk of fracture from chewing forces.

What can you do when a filling does fall out? First, rinse your mouth carefully with lukewarm water to make sure the cavity is clean. If there is discomfort, a drop of oil of cloves on a piece of cotton will lessen it. See your dentist as soon as possible and have the filling replaced.

Seeing And Learning

Vision is never more important than in the first 12 years of a child's life. According to the experts, about 80 per cent of all learning in those years is accomplished through seeing. The child has to be able to see well to study the world around him, to read, and to protect himself.

How can you tell if your child has a problem with his vision? Does he tilt his head to one side when looking at someone or something? May be he is seeing better with one eye than the other. Does he put his head close to a book when he's reading? This may be a sign of nearsightedness.

Have you noticed him blinking often or rubbing his eyes? Does he complain of headaches? These are telltale signs that he may be having problems with his vision. The only way to know for sure is to call your eye doctor for an appointment.

A good eye examination is thorough, and it's painless. If there is a vision problem, it can usually be corrected with proper eyeglasses or contact lenses.
