Greyhound Awarded Contract

A contract has been awarded to the Greyhound Exhibit Group of Atlanta, Ga., to build the North Carolina state exhibit for the 1982 World's Fair at Knoxville, Tenn. Gov. Jim Hunt made the announcement today.

This firm's proposal was selected from among eleven presentations.

"I am convinced that North Carolina will have the very best exhibit at the 1982 World's Fair," Gov. Jim Hunt said. "In addition to portraying all of the very fine things which our state has to offer visitors to the World's Fair and to welcome them to visit our state, the North Carolina exhibit will feature musical and artistic performances by our talented people."

"Our participation at the fair will be something of which all North Carolinians can be proud," Gov. Hunt added.

According to the proposal accepted from the Exhibit Group, this firm will design, according to the state's specifications, build and install the North Carolina exhibit at the World's Fair in exchange for a fee of $99,450.

The state's 1,500-square-foot exhibit will promote North Carolina's $2.4-billion travel industry and will also help tell the state's economic development story.

Sermon Topic Is Selected

"Why One Should Belong To The Church" is the sermon topic selected by Rev. R. R. Blankenhorn for the worship service at the Edenton United Methodist Church, Sunday, February 14, 11 A. M. The text for this message is John 15:16a. The photographer will be in our church Thursday (today) Friday and February.
